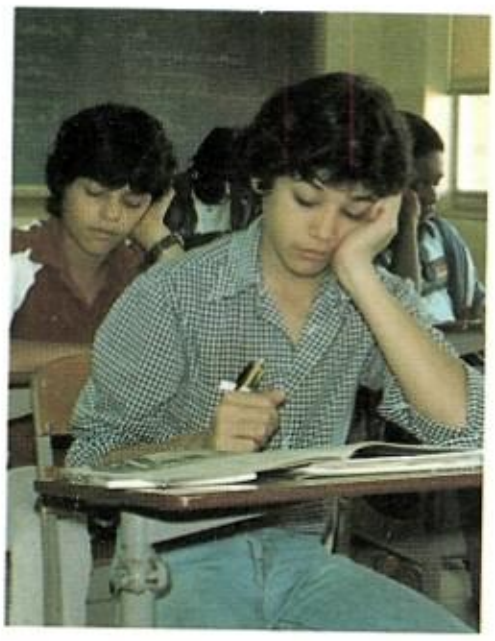
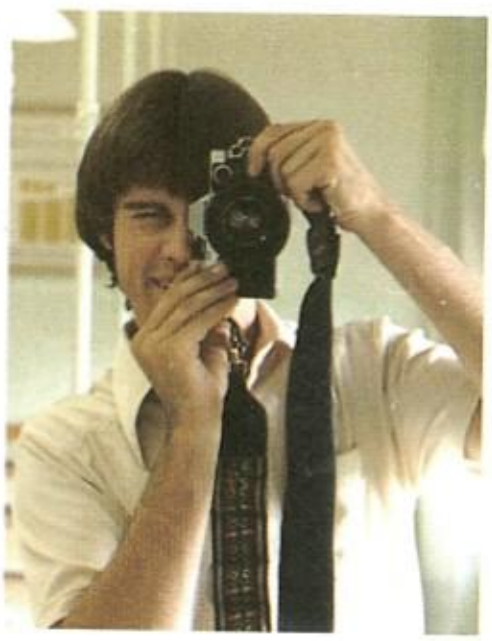
The Varsity football season begins with a victory over Mesquite.

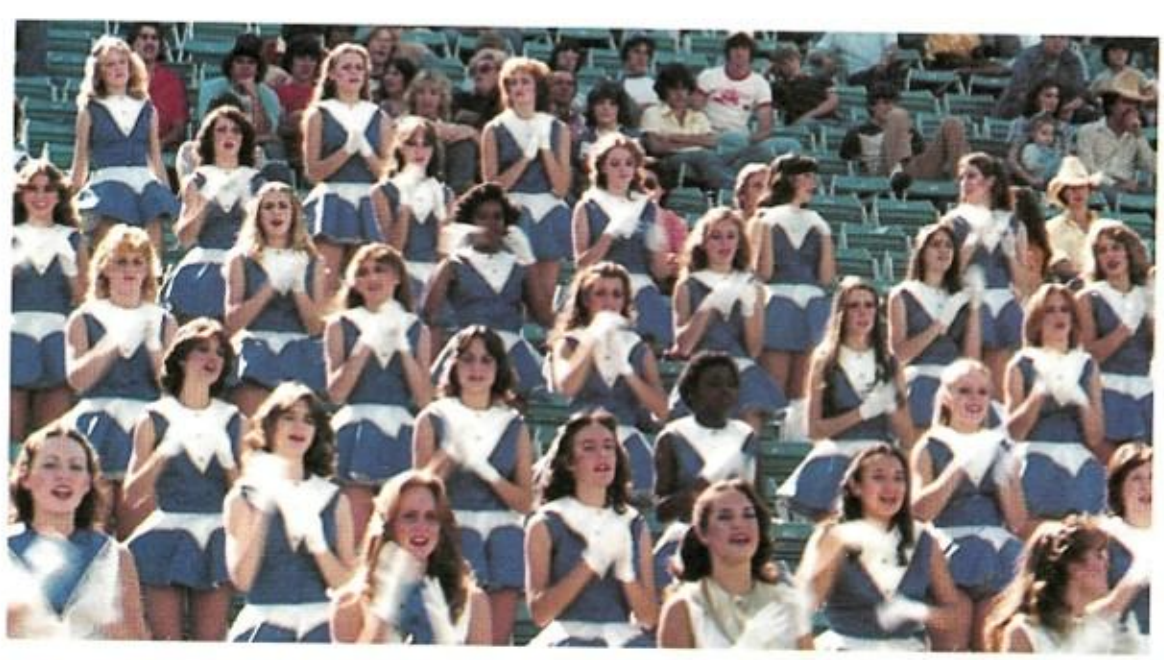


Marc Nunez studies for Ms. McCollum's test.

Lynn Bridges enjoys watching the Spartans defeat the Wildcats.



TORCH photographer Steve Christian is caught off guard.



During the Cotton Bowl game against Skyline, the Starlets cheer the Varsity on to victory.

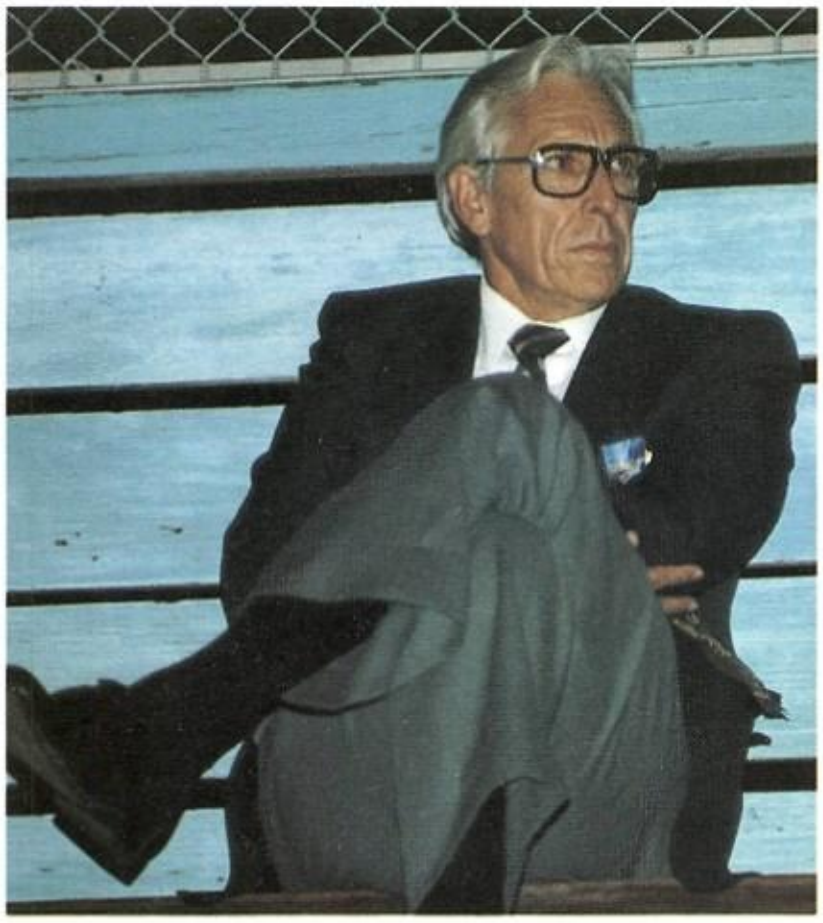
TORCH 1981

Volume 25

W. W. Samuell
High School
1 Spartan Drive
Dallas, Texas 75217

"When our team is up, you're DOWN!"

Melanie Walker takes a break from her studies.



Mr. Filgo is alone and feeling blue.

Vanessa Johnson, Perry Braziel, and Barbara Steele chat between classes.

Alaina McCoy, where did you get those eyes?

The band puts on a show in the stands.

ALMA MATER

Hail, Samuell High!
Hail, Samuell High!
This song to thee we sing.
We pledge to thee
our loyalty
As loud our praises
ring.
For always to the Gold
and Blue
Our hearts will still be true.
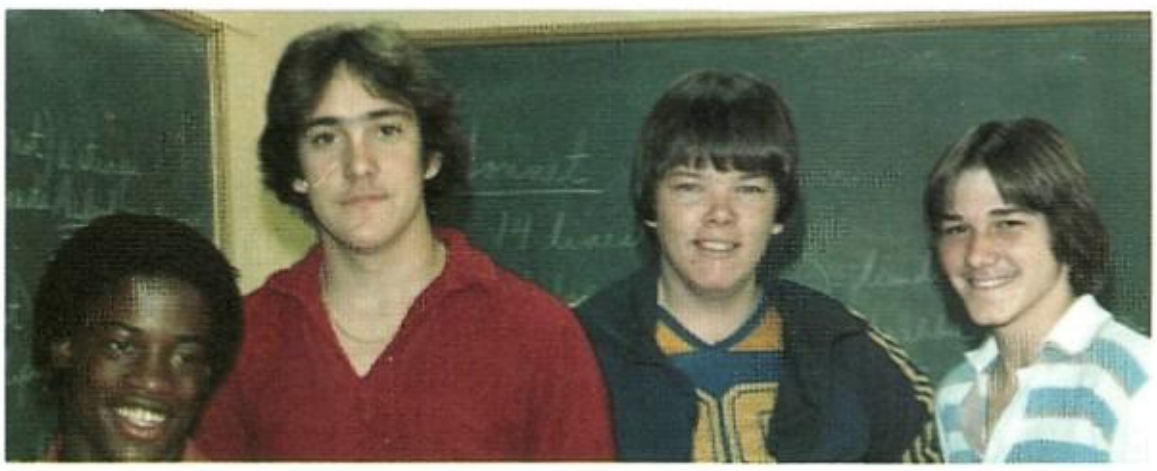
As fighting Spartans
we will cry
Our love for Samuell
High.

Robin Fowler, Kristi Cain, and Pattie Autrey snuggle up at the Spruce game.



Earl Few, Ken Purser, Gary Goins, and Kevin Meredith are the LaBare rejects.

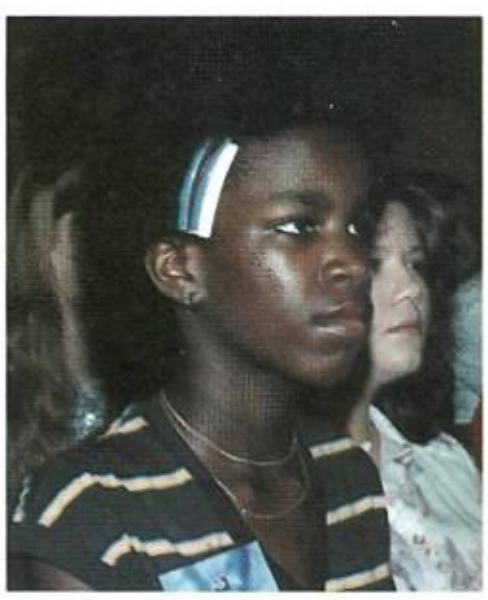
Becky Rogers smiles for the photographer.

Bill Lindley knows how to act like a freshman.

Carrie Braucht clowns around in the J.V. pep assembly.

Jenny Poston naps after a hard day at cheerleader camp.

Sheila Ragan takes pride in being a Senior.



Rosalind Davis attends a pep assembly.

Gary Brown boogies to the beat at the Homecoming dance.

Rita Duran and Kelli Williams "chow down" after a Spartan victory.

The J.V. is # 1.

FIGHT SONG

Fight Spartans, right down the field
Until we score that victory.
FIGHT! FIGHT!
Fight, Spartans, and never yield
Our pledge of pride and loyalty.
RAH! RAH!
To our colors of Gold
and Blue
We ever shall be true.
GO, SPARTANS, GO!
Go crashing through that line
And we will cheer you all the time!

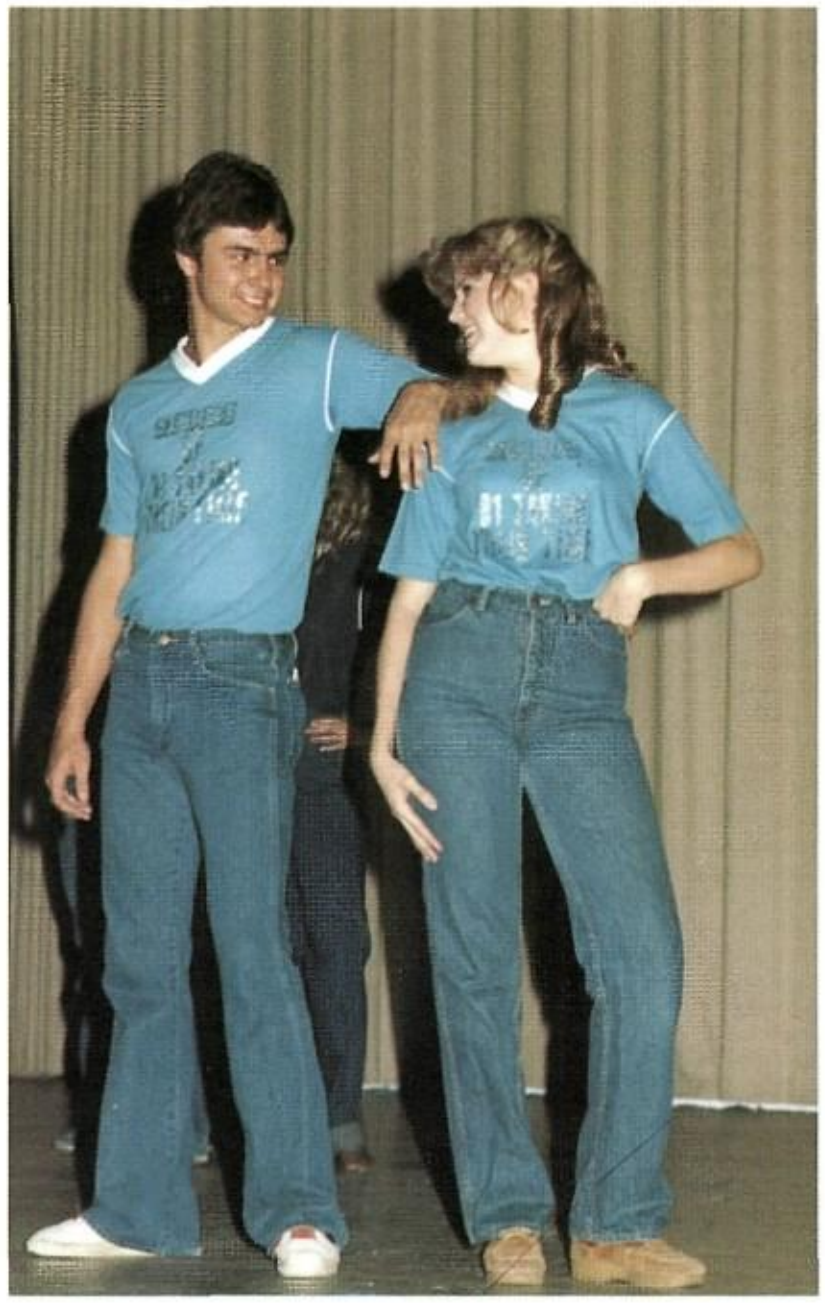
In January of 1957, students from Pleasant Grove and Woodrow Wilson High Schools walked through the doors of the new W. W. Samuell High School.

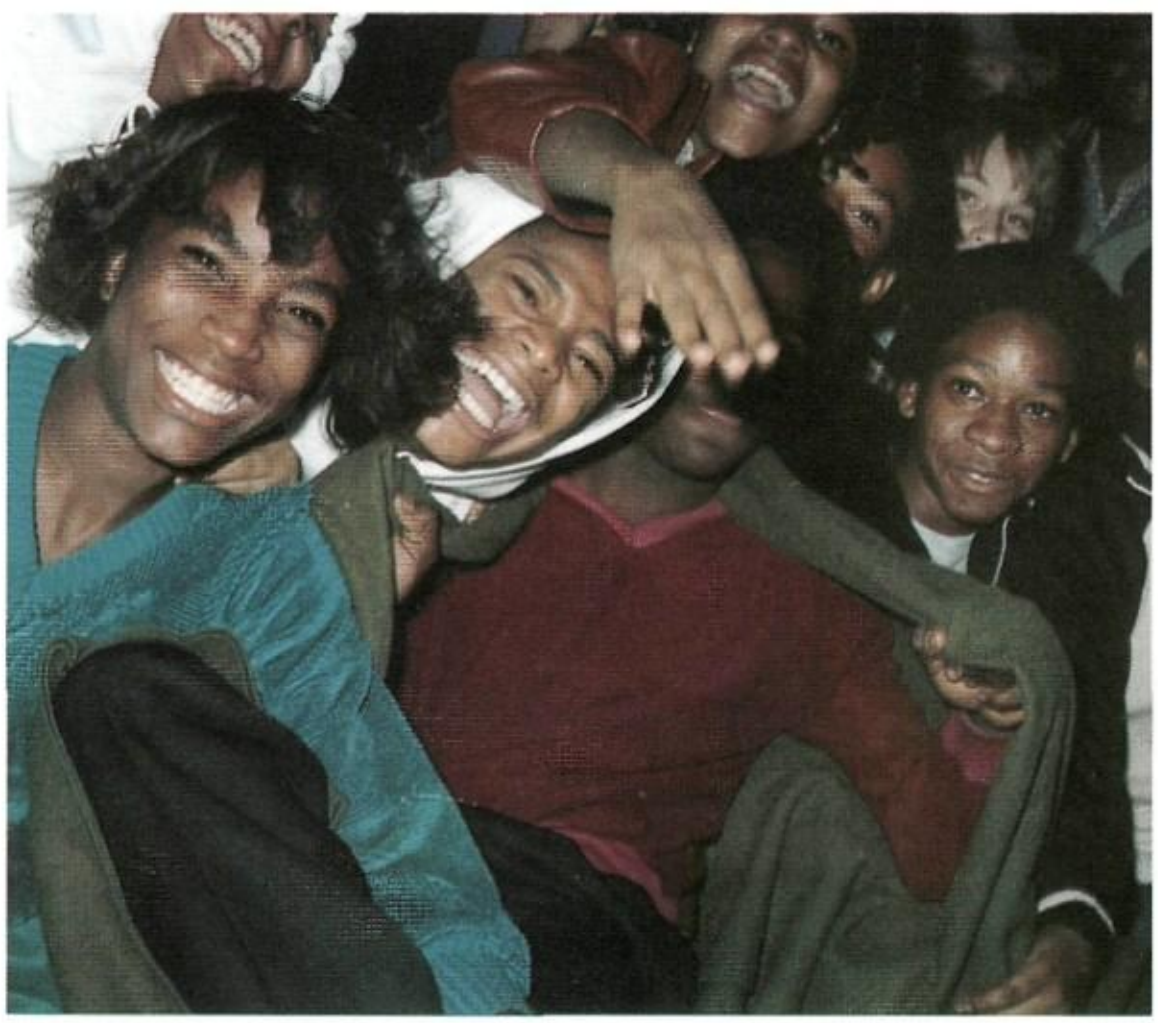
Samuell was named for a well known Dallas physician, Doctor William Worthington Samuell. At the time of his death, December 13, 1937, he left a large amount of land to the City Park Board. Samuell was built on a section of this land.

John Shumaker is such a good student, he even brings his homework to the games!

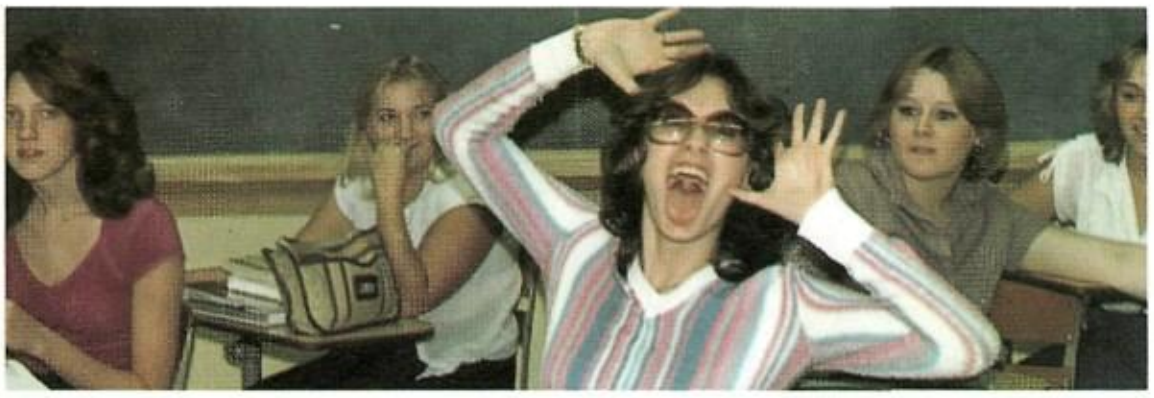


Beth Gilliam and Steve Radney are two seniors who take their time.

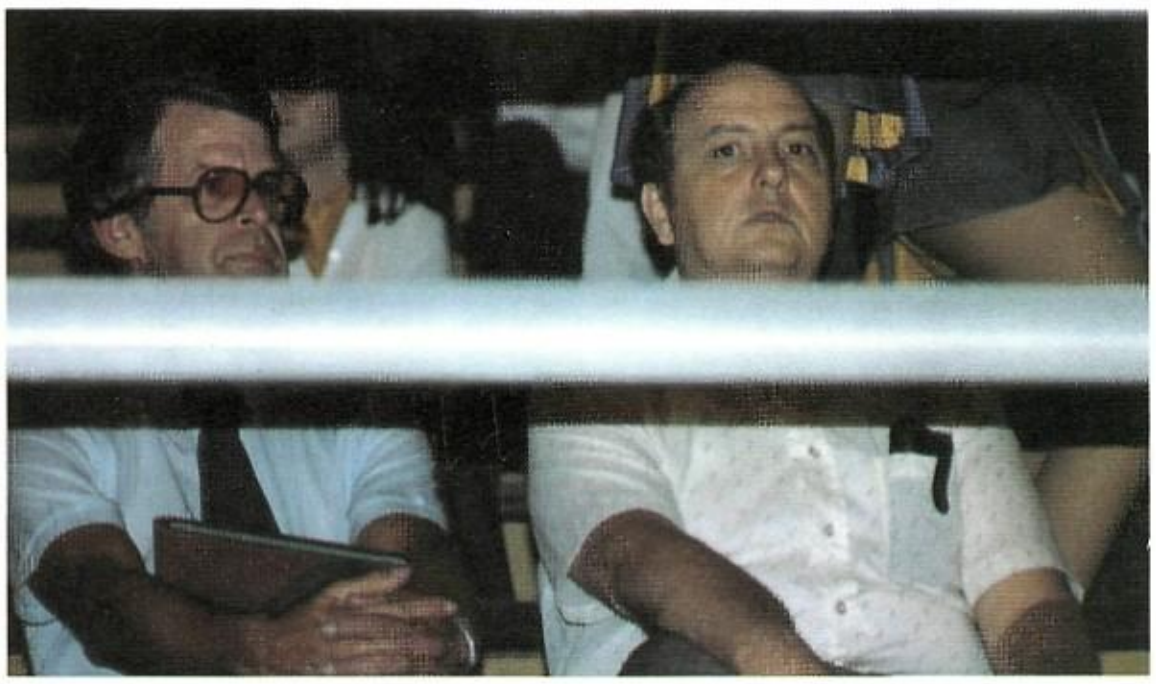
Tammy Grice is the proud president of Blue Jackets.



Amy Martin, Felicia Bluitt, and Roy Patt and friends are camera shy? NO WAY!!!

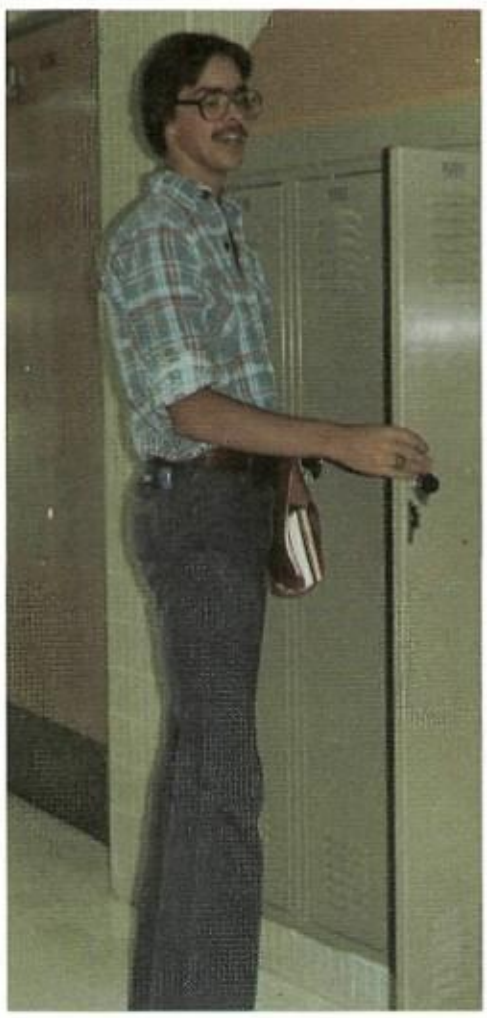


Kelley Perry "freaks out" during class.



PLEASE, DO NOT FEED THE ANIMALS!

Drum Major, Danny Klimpel says, "You mean this game isn't formal?"



Bobby Lyles hopes to find a girl in his locker.

The drummers put on a great show.

Autry Sanders likes to study.

Samuell of 1957 was vastly different from Samuell today. The auditorium was still under construction when students moved in. There were no sidewalks — and it rained a record 145 inches, the first spring at Samuell.

The space that is now the parking lot was a cotton field. There was no air conditioning at Samuell until 1970. Students moved into the new east wing of Samuell in 1965.

The Starlet officers are all smiles at Homecoming.

Pam Slayden jams at the Homecoming dance.

It's nap time for Ms. Crawford and Rogenia Willis.

Brad Davis and Michael Wallace look on from the sidelines.

Jennifer Newsom "flags" at the game.

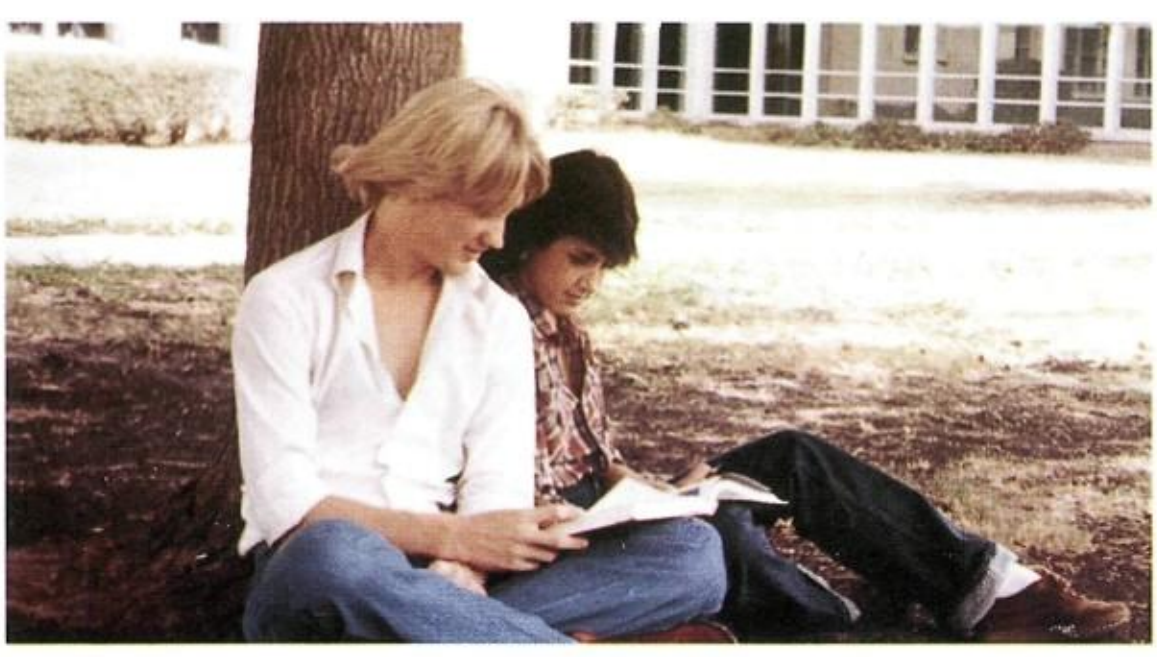
Kenneth Johnson breaks loose.

Is Robin Brantley boring you, Kathy Foster?

The ROTC makes its presence known.

The cheerleaders and Melanie Miller show off their mums.

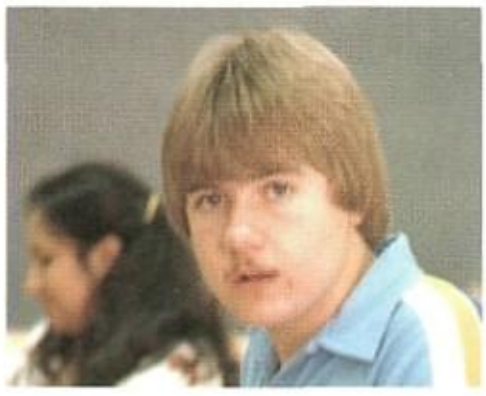
Susan Ballew IS a little devil.



David Moore and Dana Woodfin enjoy studying in the shade.

Since the school was located on Palisade Drive, the theme of Greek defense was chosen. Spartans was chosen as the team name, symbolizing the Greek soldiers' philosophy either to die in battle, or return victorious.

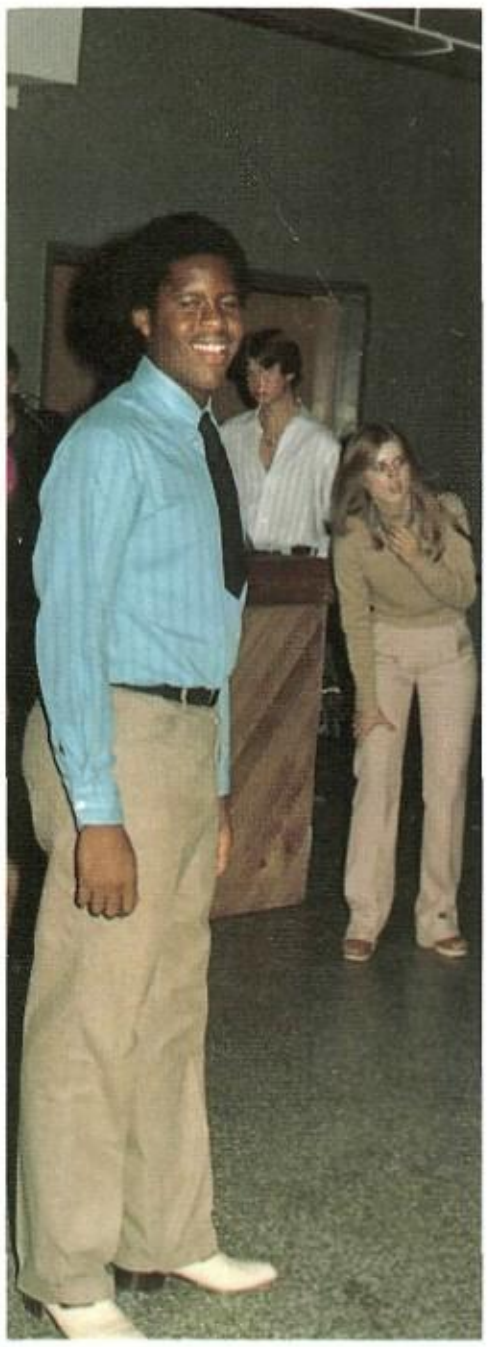
Sentinel means "one who watches" and thus the newspaper received its name. The yearbook took TORCH as its title, representing truth, knowledge, and understanding. Starlets was chosen as the drill team's name because of the Greek's interest in astrology.



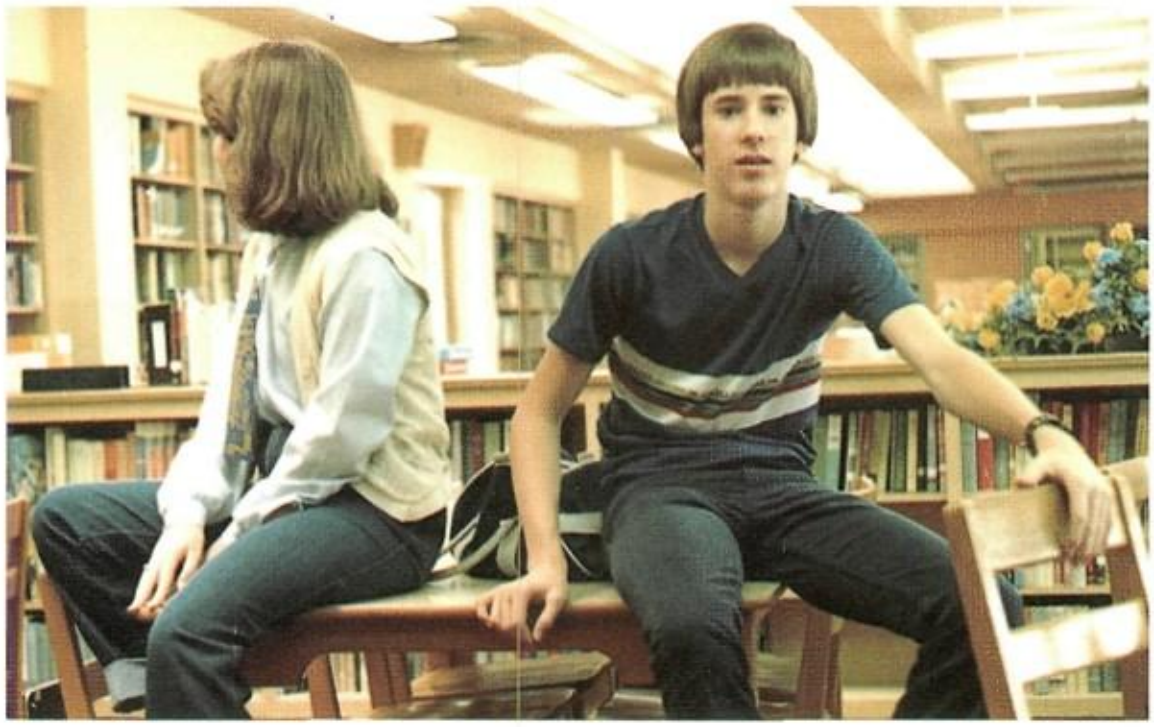
Ralph McGuffey asks, "You want me to do what?"

Robin Keeton, Karen Carder, and Tammy Coates anxiously await the outcome of the game.

Hey, Randa Hawkins, let me see you get down!



Darrell Harrison takes a break at the Homecoming dance.

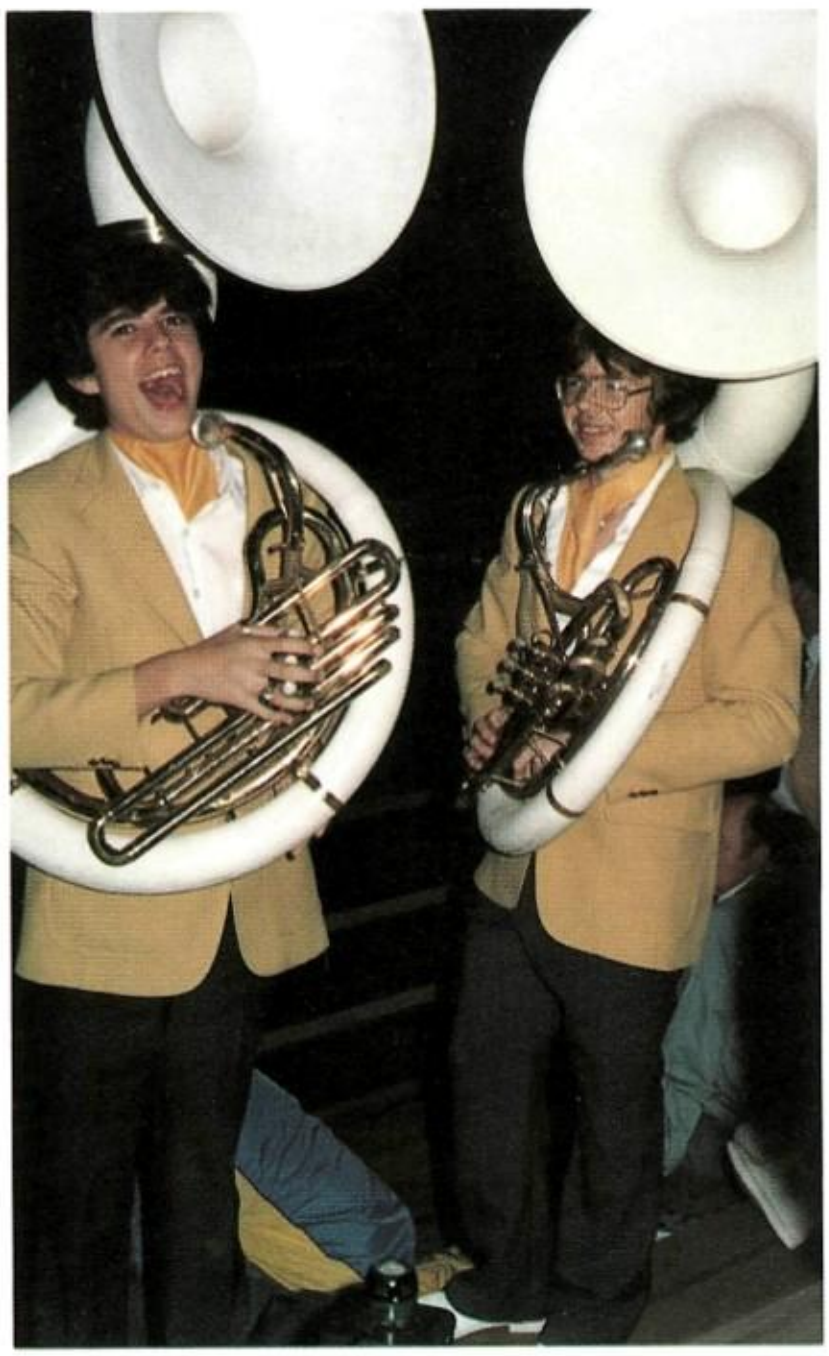


Donna Wilson and Mark Walker just can't seem to get together.

Mary Chism and Julie Mudgett get into the spirit of things.

Greg Pattillo asks, "Won't you be my friend?"

The Spartan Image and Banner Team show pride and spirit.

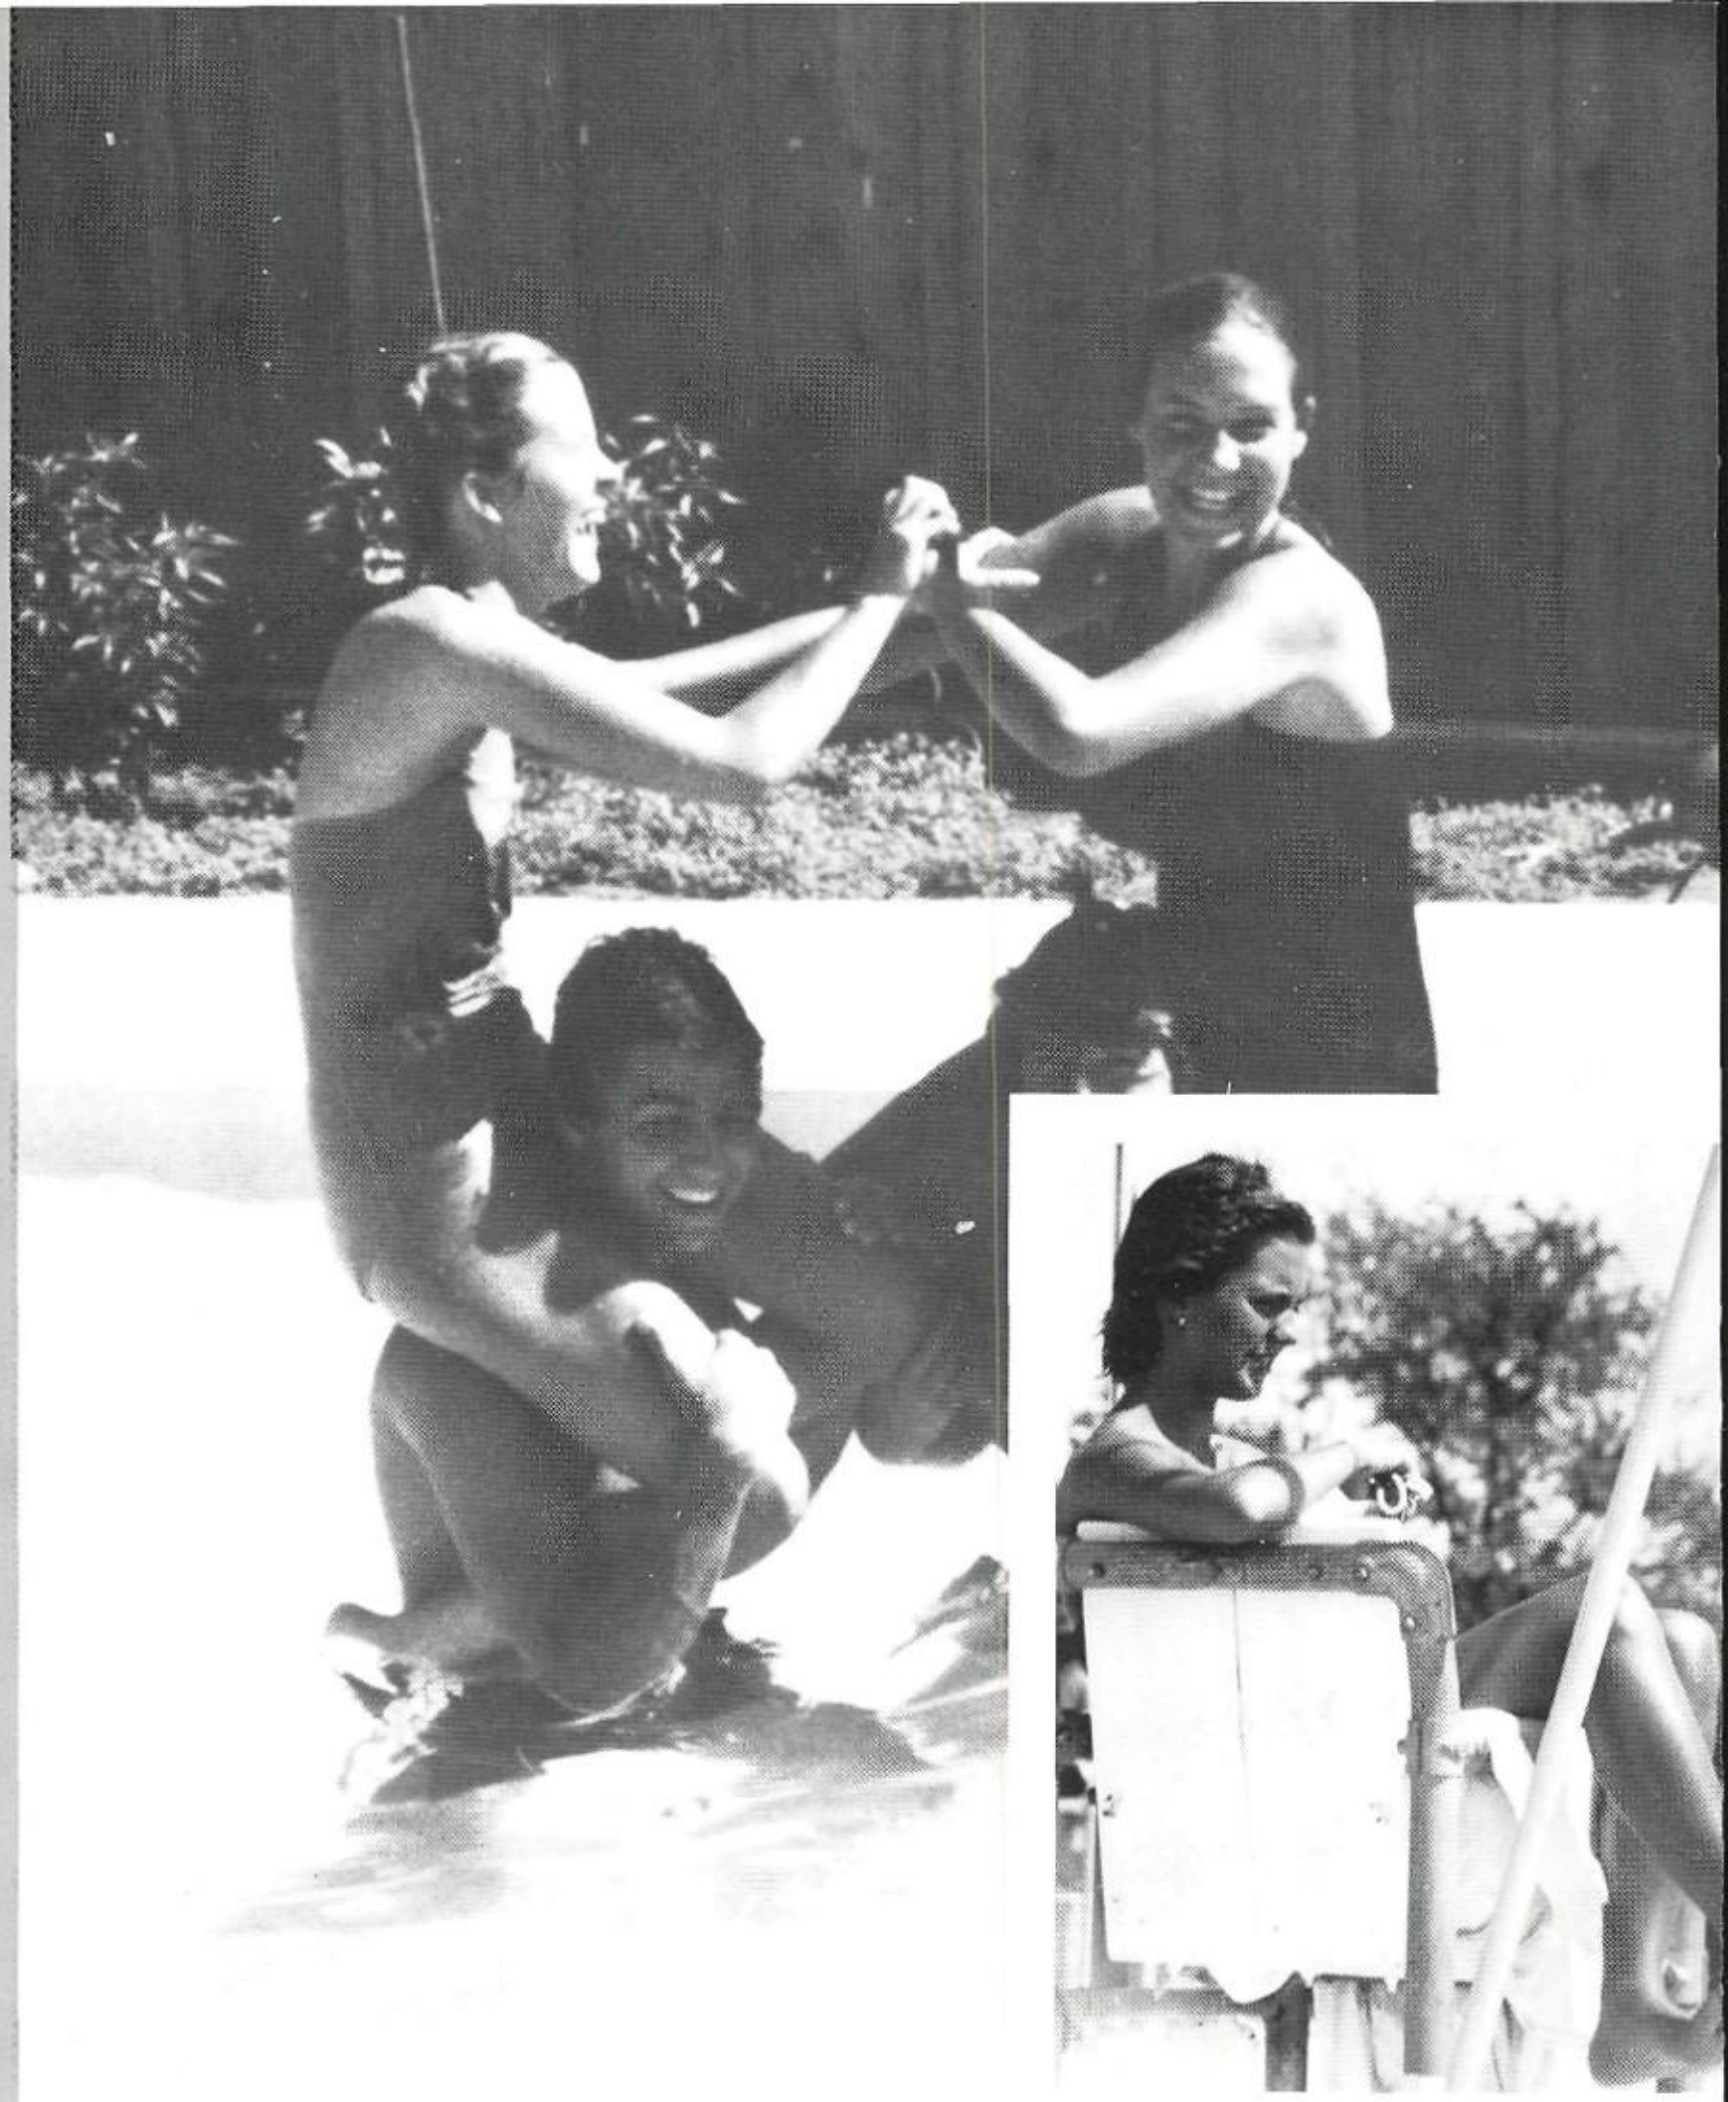


Steve Baugh and Steve Pullen "blow" their own horns.

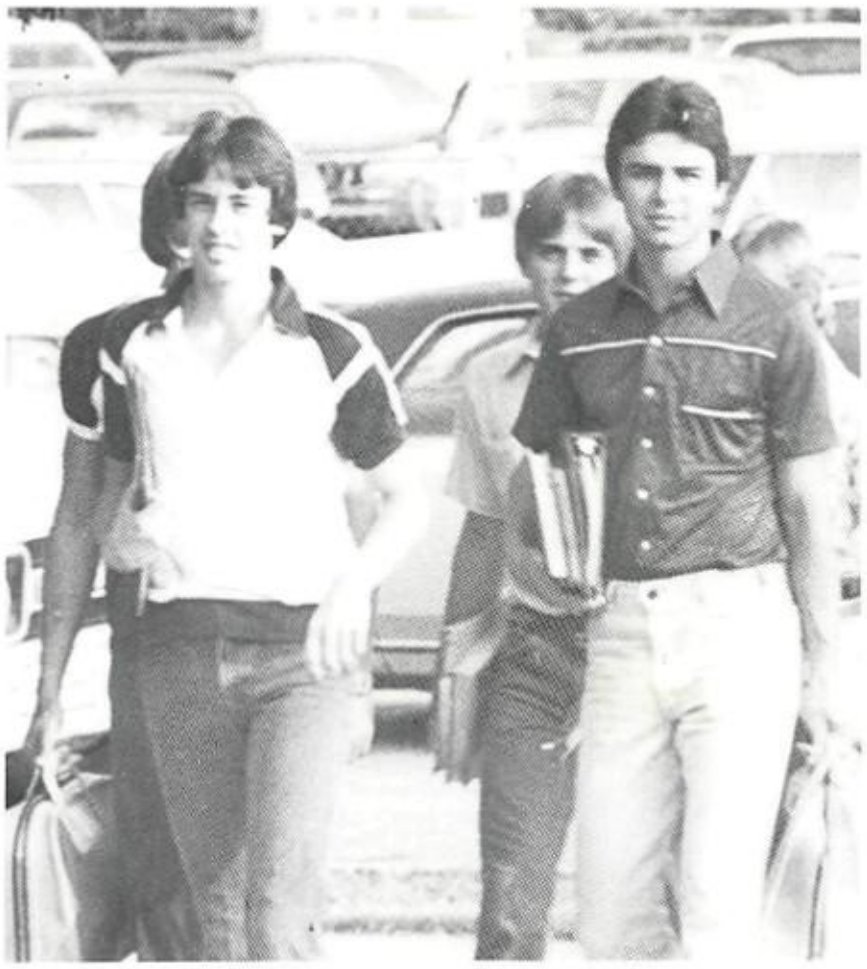
John Bond and Roxanne Young "freak to the beat" at the Halloween party.

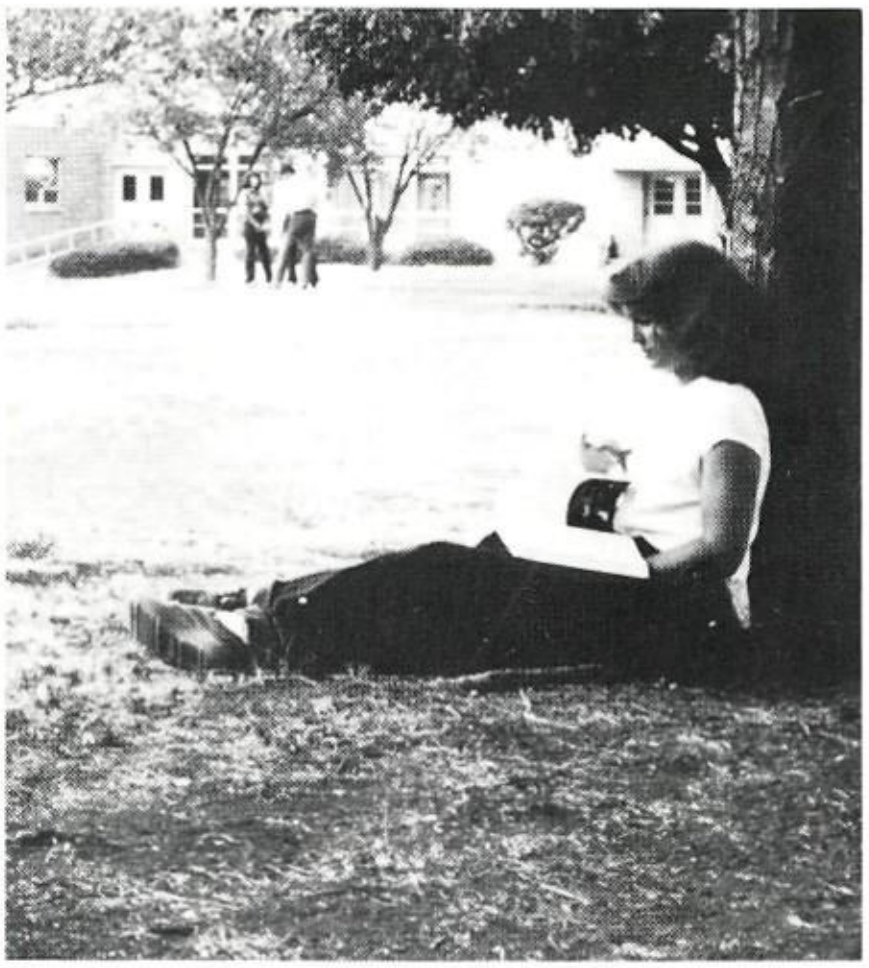
In their first entry in city play, the Spartans made a good showing. They placed third in district 5-AAAA. Samuell played their games then in the now splintered Pleasant Grove Field.

After twenty-five years of school tradition, W. W. Samuell still carries those same qualities of victory and truth. Let us hope Spartans will always uphold the school's spirit.



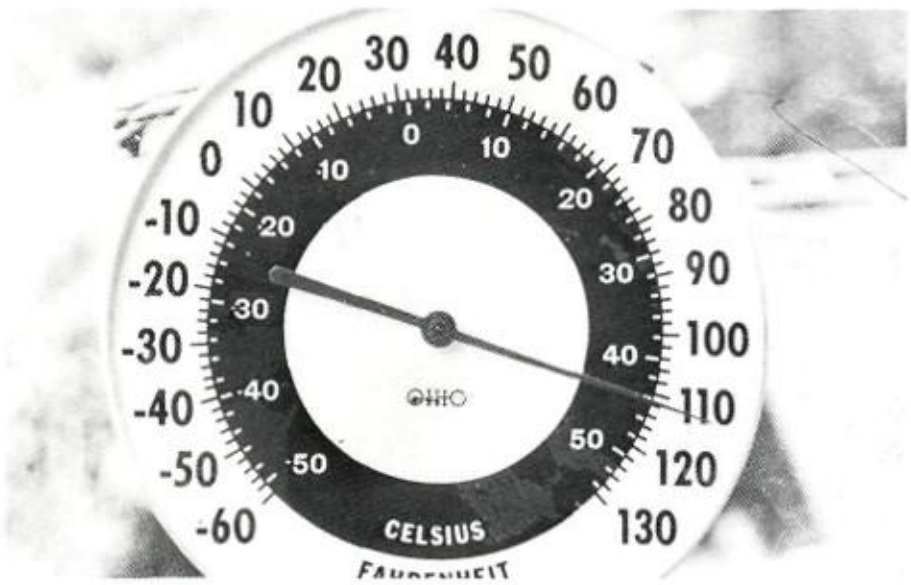
SUMMER



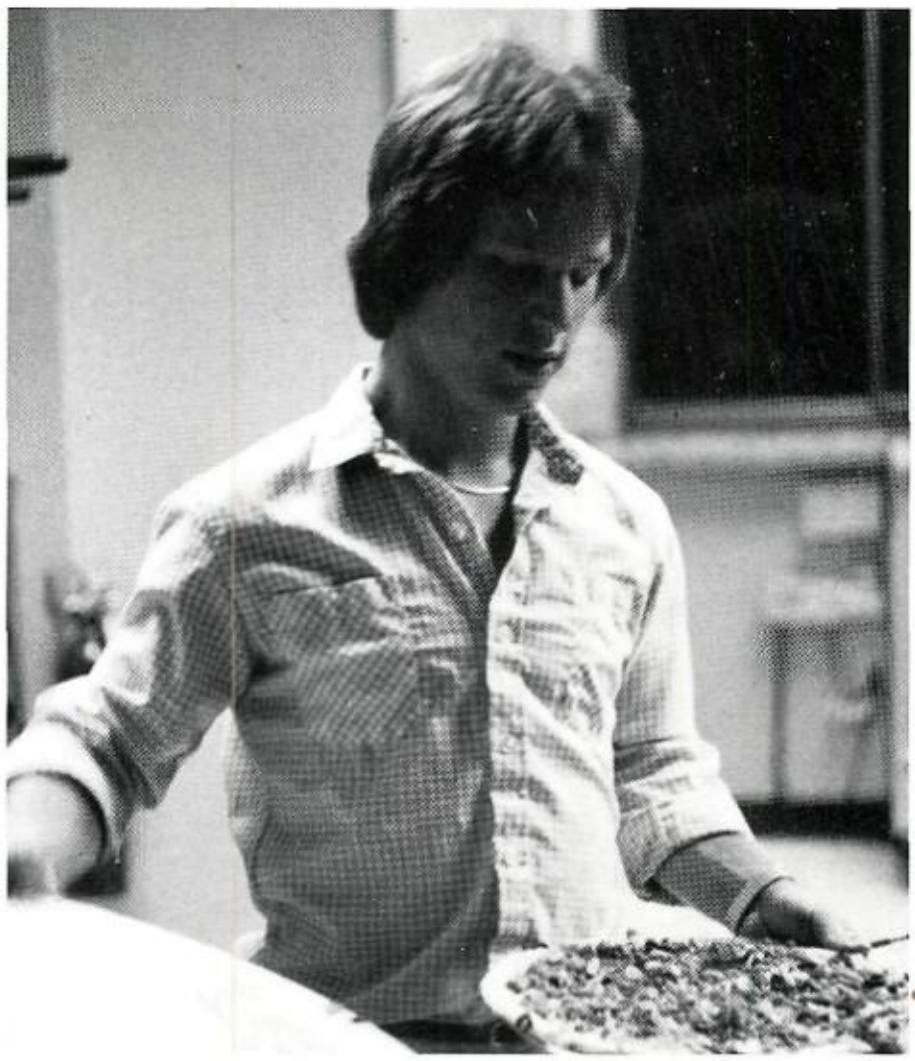


SPARTANS FIRE-UP FOR SUMMER

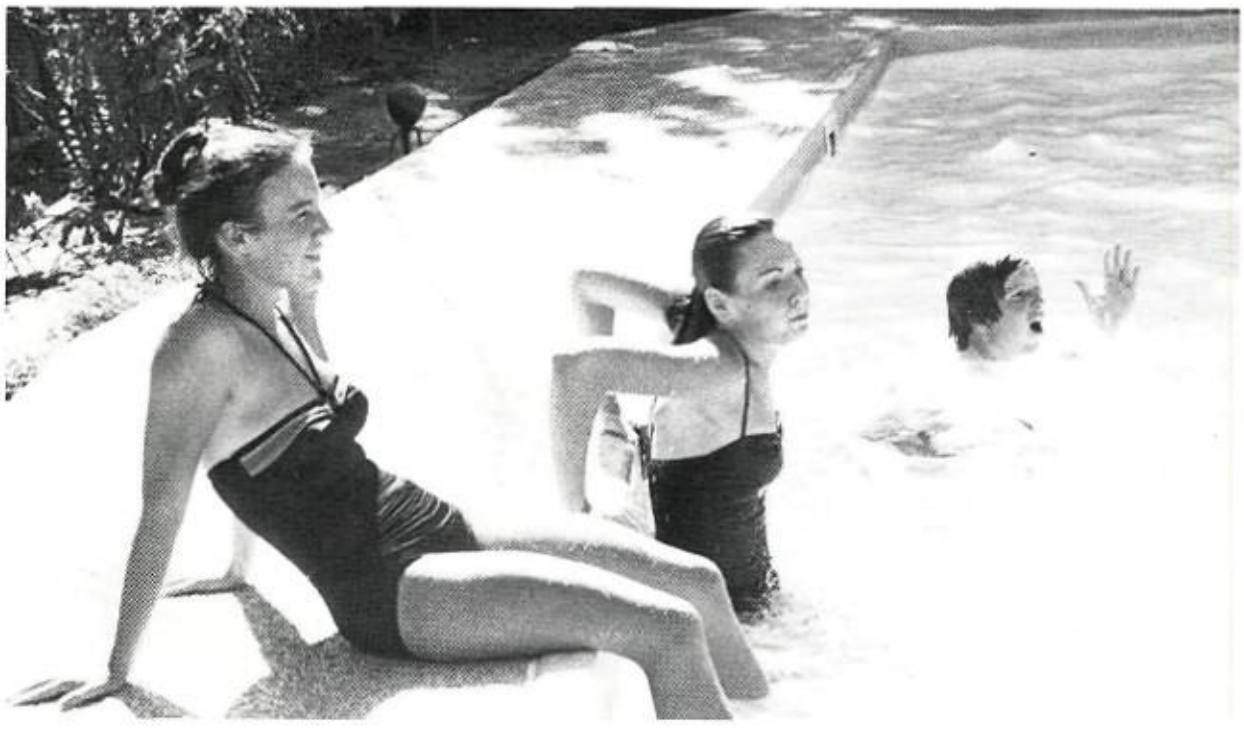
Summer is softball, S.M.U. camps, drill, band, or Blue Jacket practice, swimming, sun bathing, golf, or straightening your schedule out with a counselor in record setting temperatures. And of course, summer eventually brings about the inevitable reopening of school. In August, students returned to school, regretting the summer's end, but anticipating the new school year's challenges.



112 degrees in the shade is REALLY HOT!!!!



Mitchell Mills makes his "dough" at Mr. Gatti's.



Tawnya Wooten, Paula Bledsoe, and Jeff Boyd cool off in the pool.

Blue Jackets meet before school starts to practice for the card show.

Kenny Pettijohn and Charlie Martinez play a round of golf to relax.

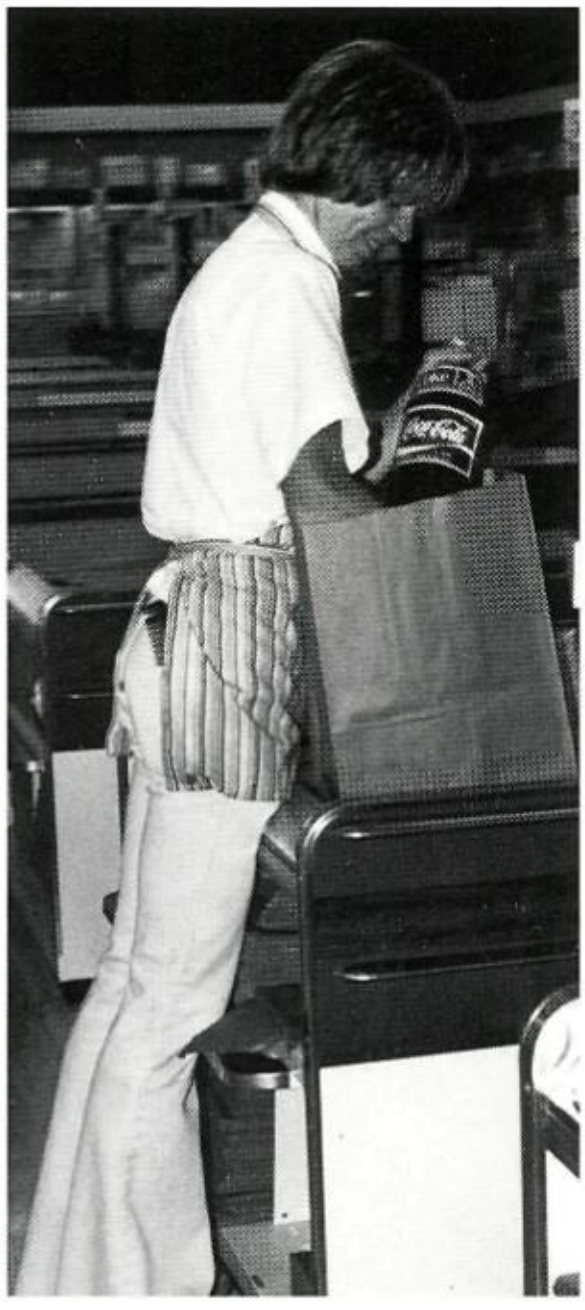
The drill lines up.

Beth Gilliam says, "May I help you?"

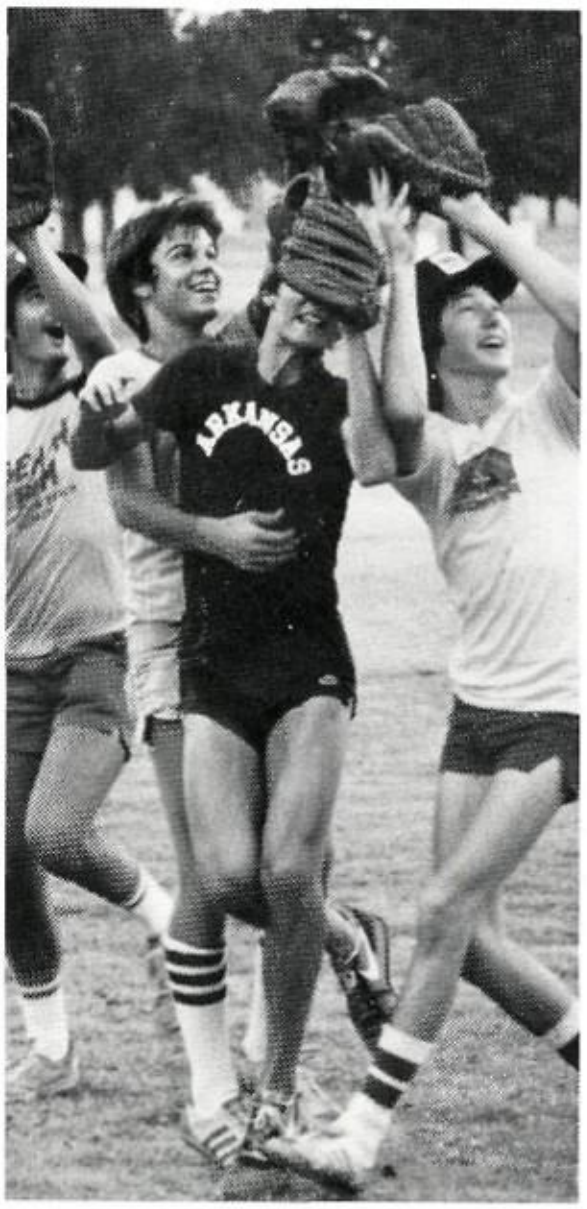
Tina Morgan says, "Boy, is this tree heavy."

Kenneth Hall comes up empty.

Freshmen get their first taste of Spartan life at orientation.

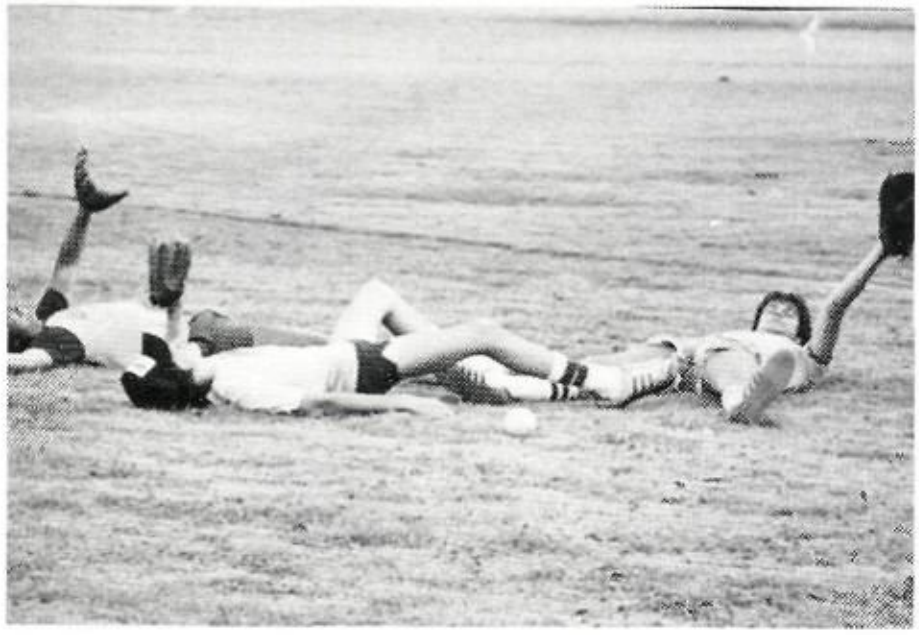


David Dixon has a coke and a smile.

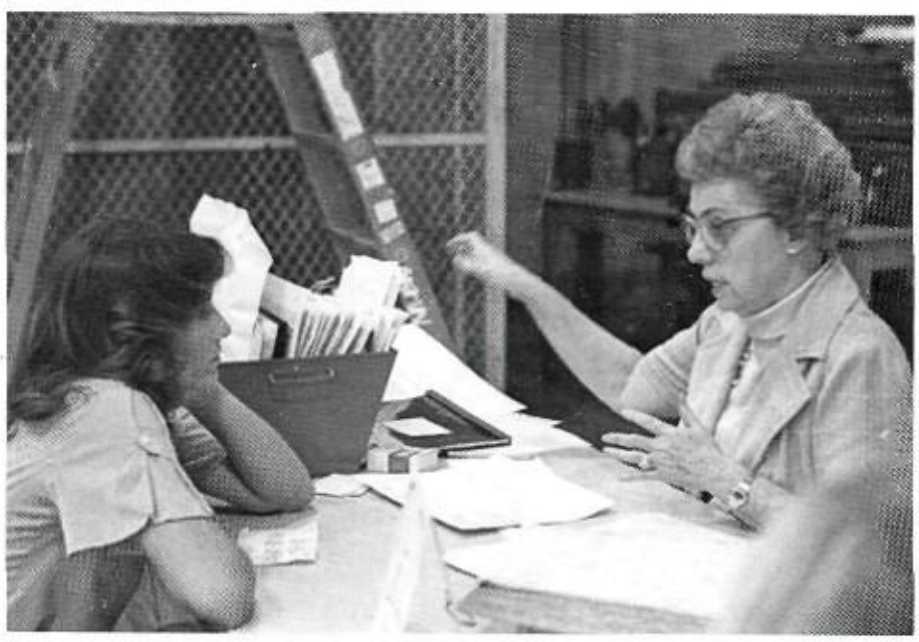


Steve Christian, Chris Canada, John Shumaker, and Jeff Scott "Go For It."

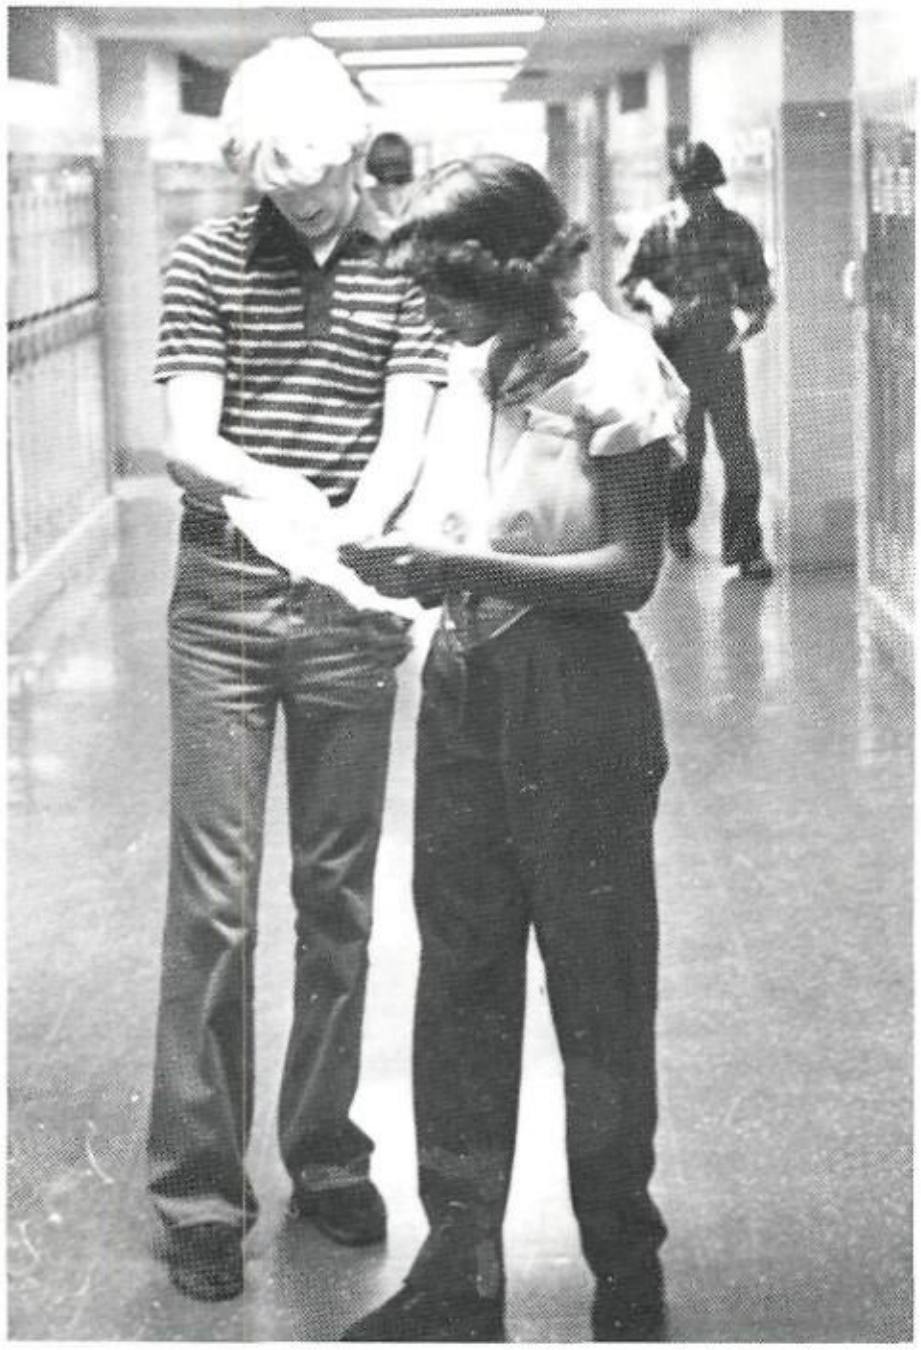
Band practice in the heat separates the men from the boys.



. . . but they miss.



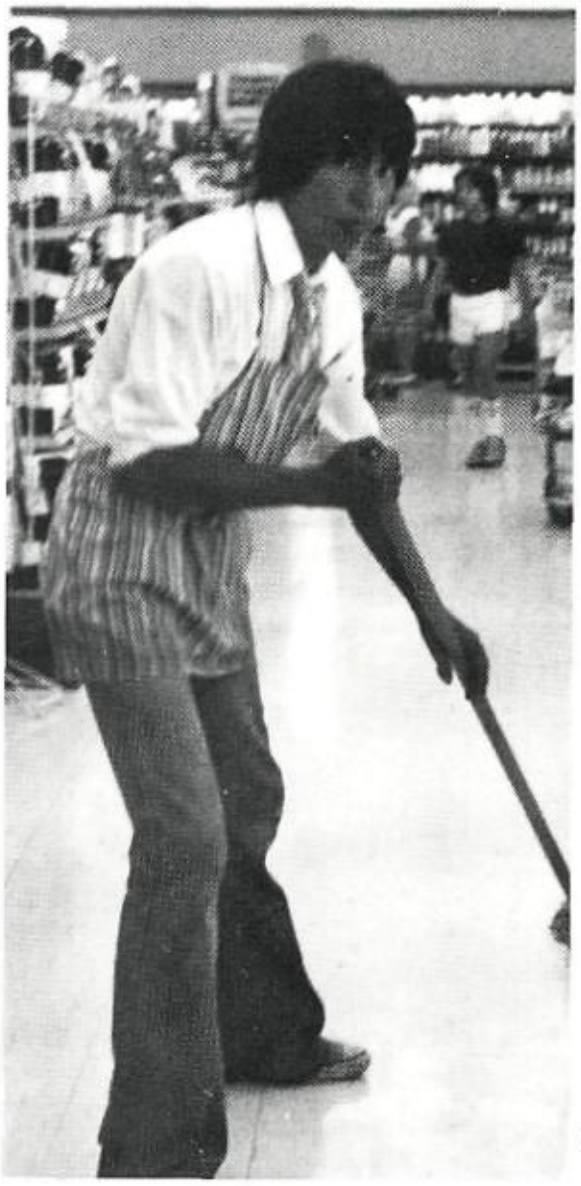
Teri Smith gets some help with her schedule from Ms. Vining.



Charlie Green helps Charlotte Blackmon locate her next class.

Kevin Willmon "produces" at Kroger's.

Annual camp wasn't that bad, Tammy Page.



Jessie Silva mops up at Skaggs.

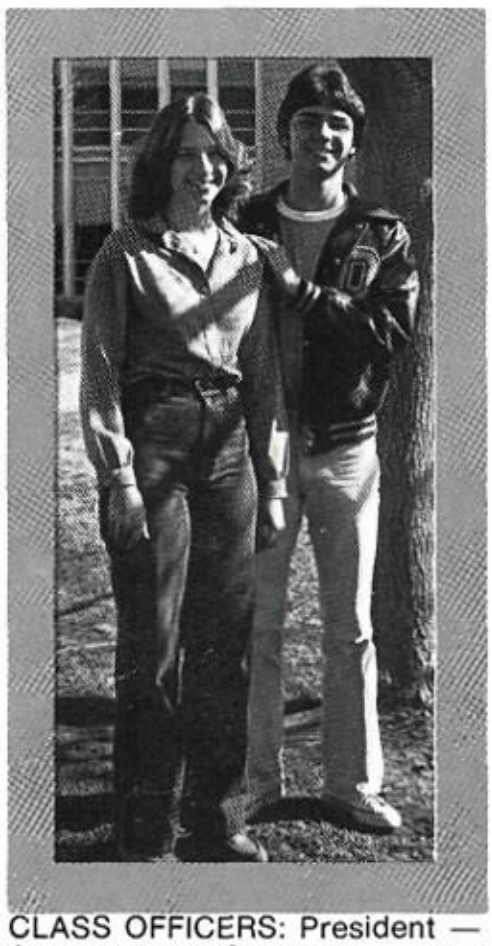
Loretta Freeman slurps a popsicle.

Patty Morris takes a break during cheerleader camp.

Paula Bledsoe, Tawnya Wooten, Diane Trent, and Dana Woodfin work on their golden tans.

Becky Rogers and Becky Martinez chat about their summer.

SENIORS

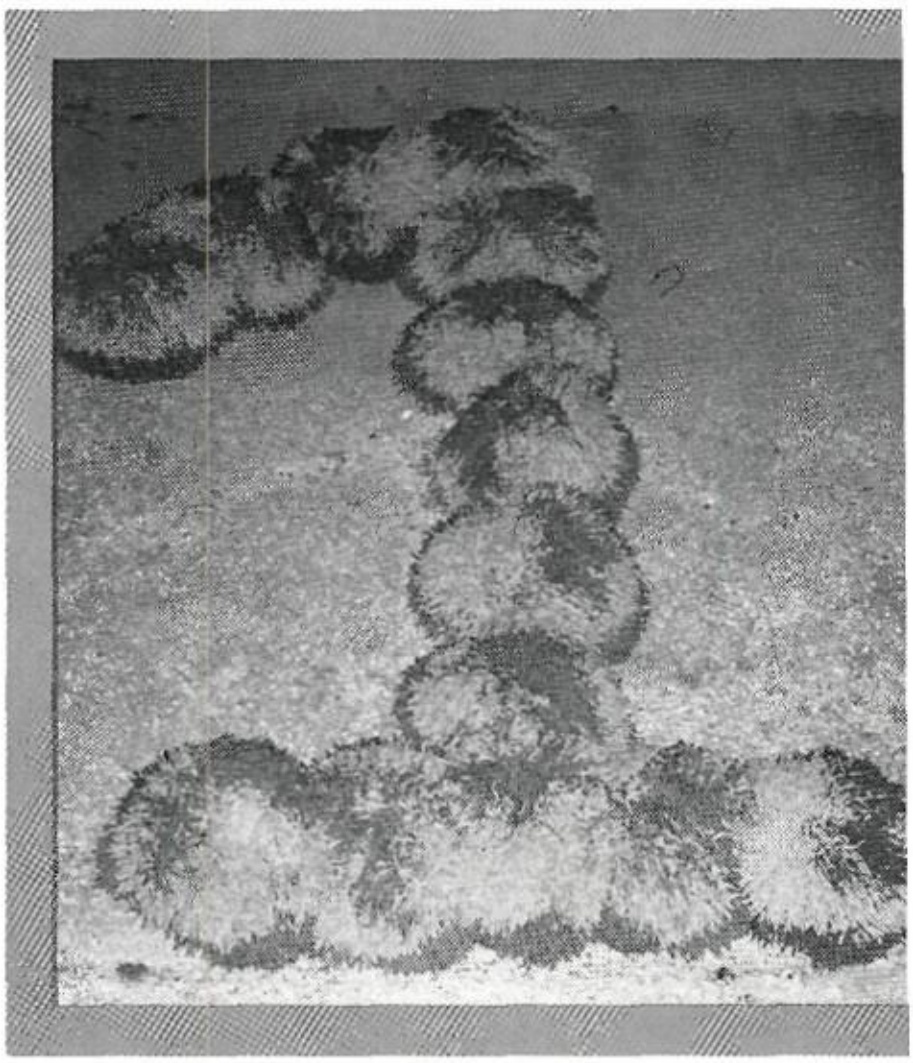


CLASS OFFICERS: President — Steve Radney, Secretary — Zena Ruzicka.

Laurie Johnson, Diane Trent, and Robin Brantley, is this the way seniors car poo

Tina Morgan says, "You can't dream about Brian all the time, Tammy Page."

Willie Gloria and Kenneth Johnson promote spirit for the South Garland game.



Class of '81, we're still #1!

The graduating class of 1981 is only the second class who attended Samuell as freshmen to graduate. The seniors of 1981 are a proud group who have accomplished much.

The Seniors dominate many Samuell groups. Out of fifty Starlets, the graduates of 1981 hold a majority with twenty-three girls. The Varsity Cheerleaders and Banner Team are exclusively senior groups. The class of 1981 also dominates Student Council with a membership of twenty-one seniors.

The class of 1981 is one of the smallest to graduate from Samuell with a total of 348 members.

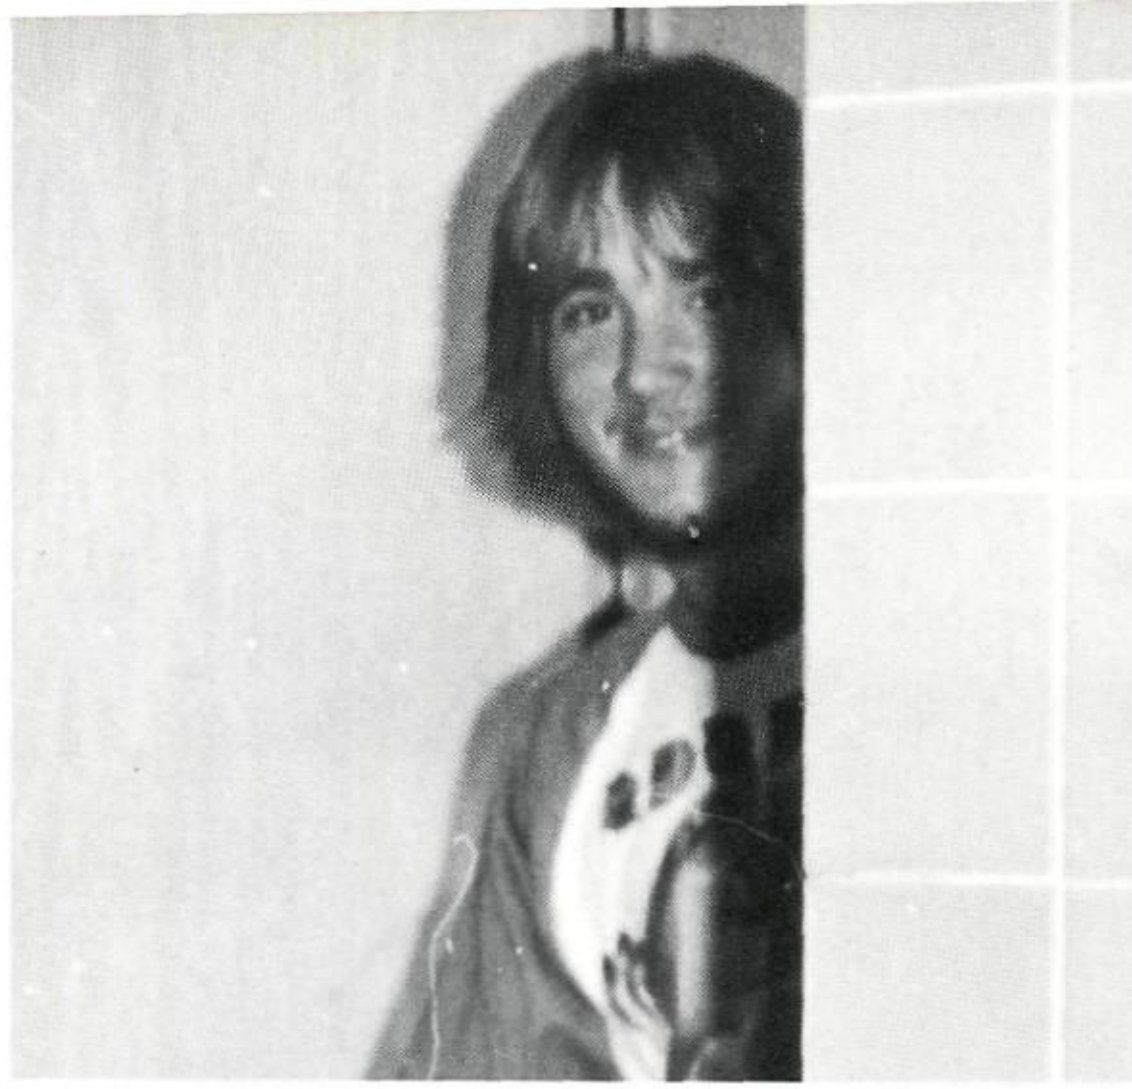
W. W. Samuell High School

JUNIORS

CLASS OFFICERS: President — Monica Guyton, Vice-President — Terry Braziel.



Peek-a-boo, Donnie Gardner.

Charles Kent thinks the juniors are #1!

When the camera is this close, Ericka Griggs trusts Pepsodent.

When seniors talk, Carrie Braucht and Rhonda Rhea listen.

The juniors of 1981, seniors of 1982, accomplished a great deal this year. The Junior Varsity football team won their district championship and had a record of 8 and 2. Thirteen juniors started on the Varsity team.

The Jesters!, a Samuell musical group, consists of twenty-two members: four of these members are juniors. The Concert Choir, made up of ninety-five students, contained forty-three juniors. Nine juniors are also members of Student Council. There are a total of 353 juniors in the W. W. Samuell student body this year.

The sophomores of 1981 are the second largest class at Samuell, with 421 students. The graduating class of 1983 seems eager to be involved in school activities. The sophomores' abundant energy during the year added much to the Spartan spirit. They played a vital part in various school clubs and activities, including football, drill, the all-school play, Thespians, and Student Council.

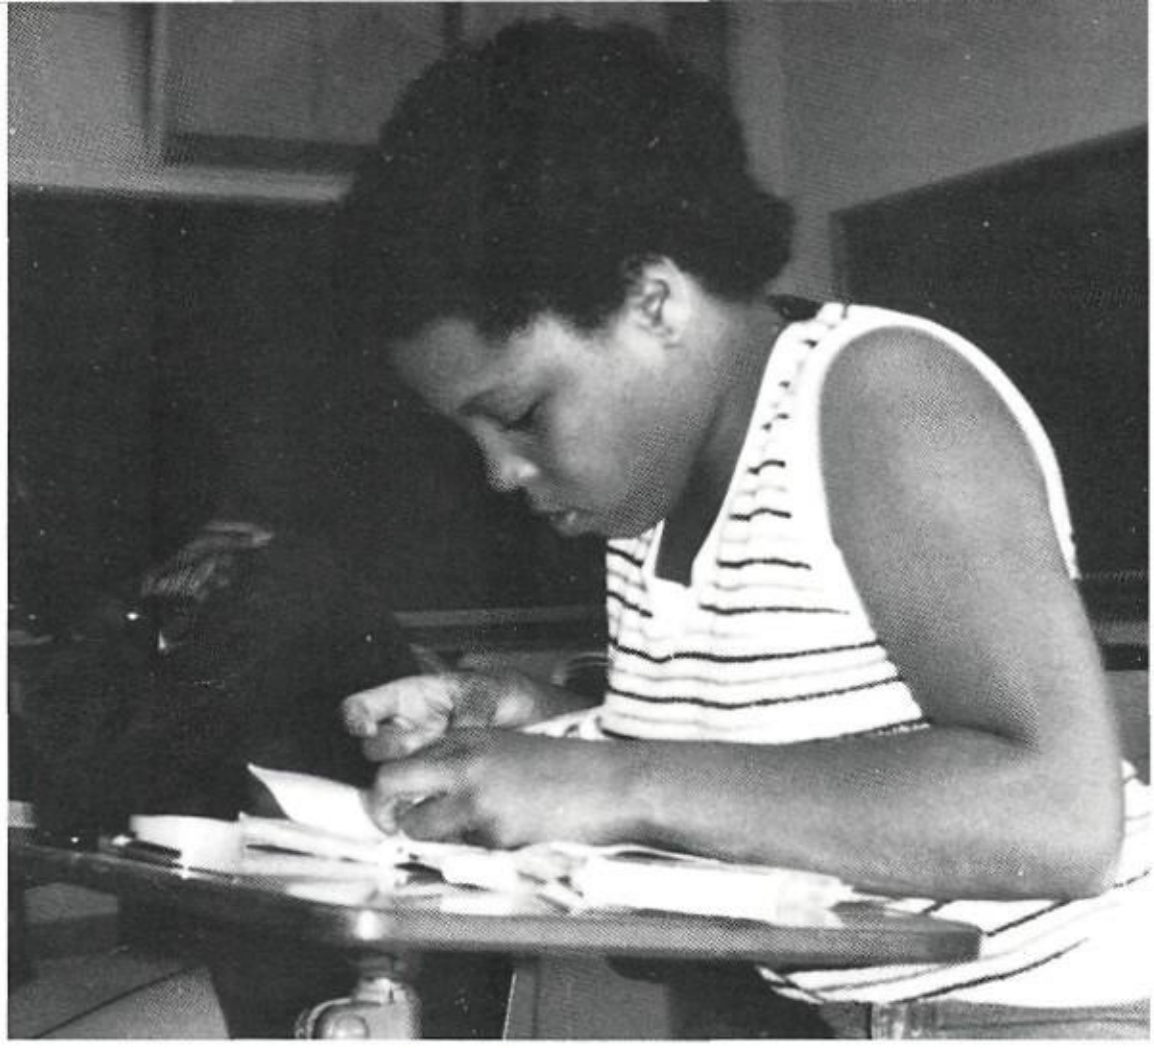
FRESHMEN

CLASS OFFICERS: Vice President — Sheryl Scott, President — Lisa Hoppert, Secretary — Kimber Sanders.



Belinda Russell cuts up in class.

Johnetta Custard and Cindy Featherston cheer on the mighty big blue.

Sherry McClung: "Shucks, Lost Again!"

The game couldn't be that bad, could it, Michael Payne?

The class of 1984 is the fifth freshman class ever to attend Samuell. The freshman football team had the impressive record of 6-1 and 2. The Bluejackets, which had a larger membership than last year, claimed over 90 freshmen in its ranks.

Freshman Choir, whose enrollment remained the same as last year, is composed of 65 students. At solo and ensemble contest the freshmen did well. Four members won gold medals for superior ratings; six students received ribbons for excellence.

The freshman class holds the single largest enrollment at Samuell, having 473 students.

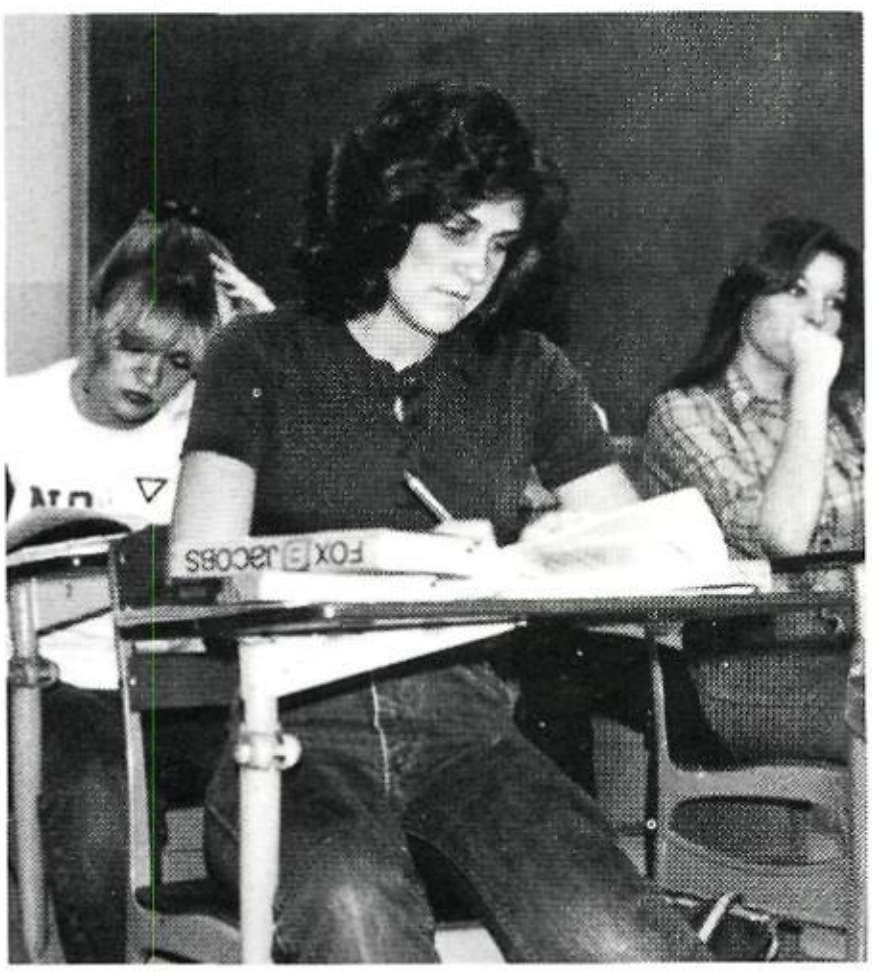
FALL



SPARTANS WRAP UP FOR FALL

Fall is football, fair day, Homecoming, raking leaves, riding bikes, eating turkey, watching the Dallas Cowboys, cheering the Royals through the World Series, and electing Ronald Reagan as President. Students are desperately trying to keep up with their grades while anxiously awaiting the Thanksgiving holidays.

The cheerleaders and banner team "fall" into Fall.

Robin Brantley and Paula Bledsoe are KISS hopefuls.

Danny Catron jogs to keep in shape.

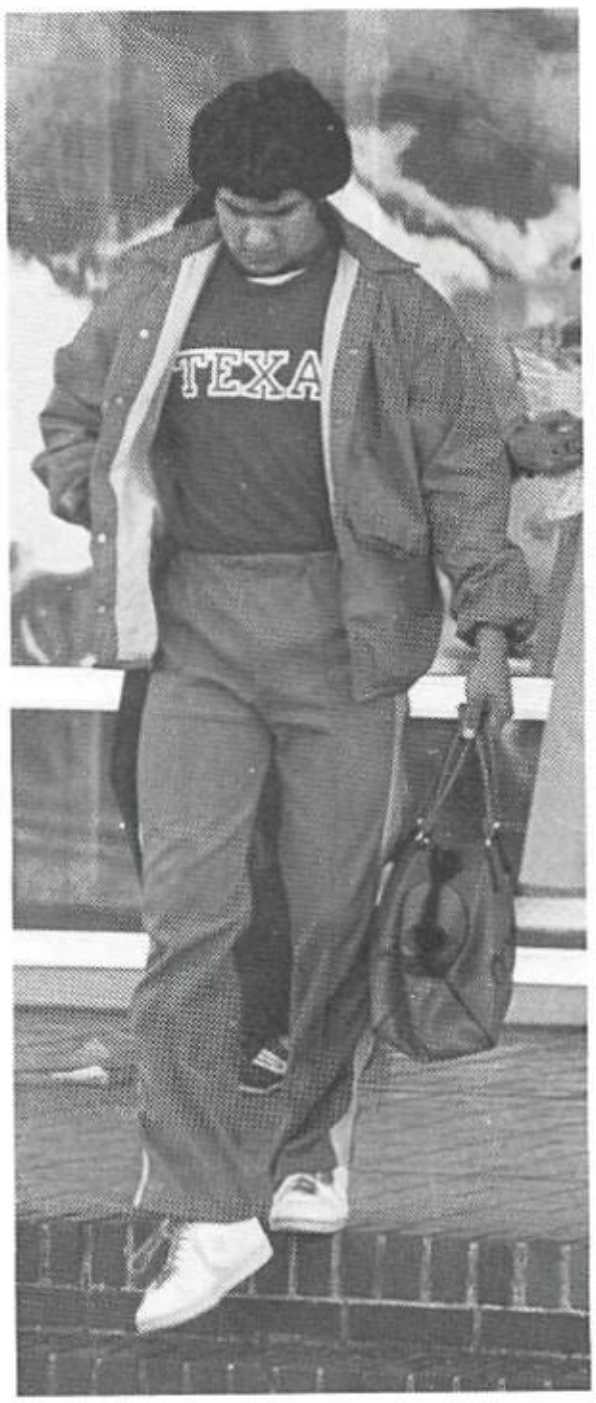
ARE YOU READY for the Starlets of 1981!!!

Kelly White swings into tennis.

Brenda Williams, Rhonda Bridwell, Lori Moore, Robin Hubbard, and Trish Butler bundle up at the Spruce game.

Steve Baugh — buried alive!!

Rhonda Rhea, Lisa BeLew, and Todd Russell sont etudiente de français.



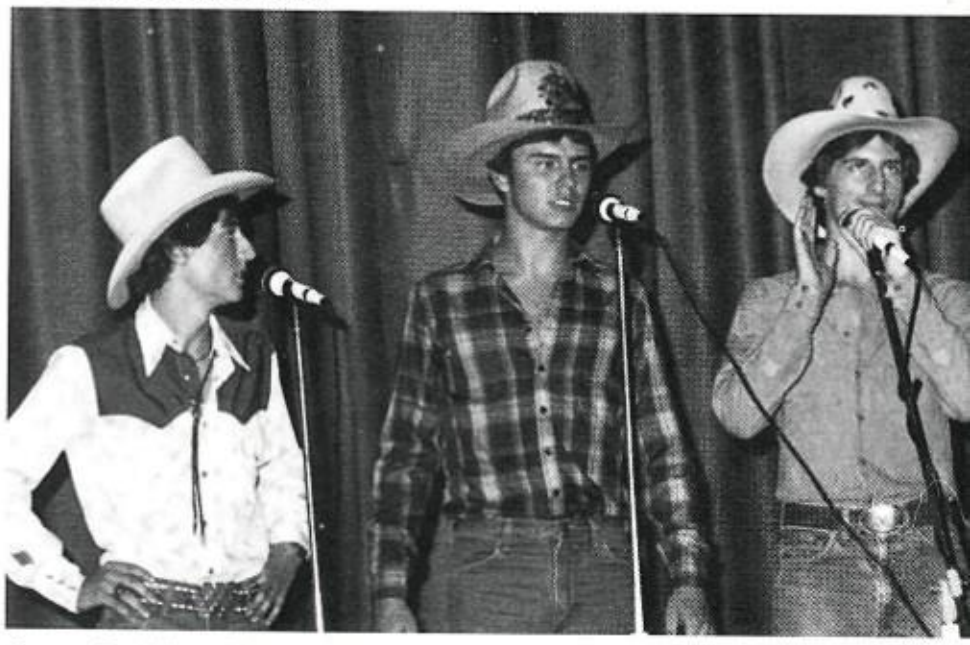
Johnny Vidales trots out the door.

Joe Sullivan and Lisa Meister are the student directors.

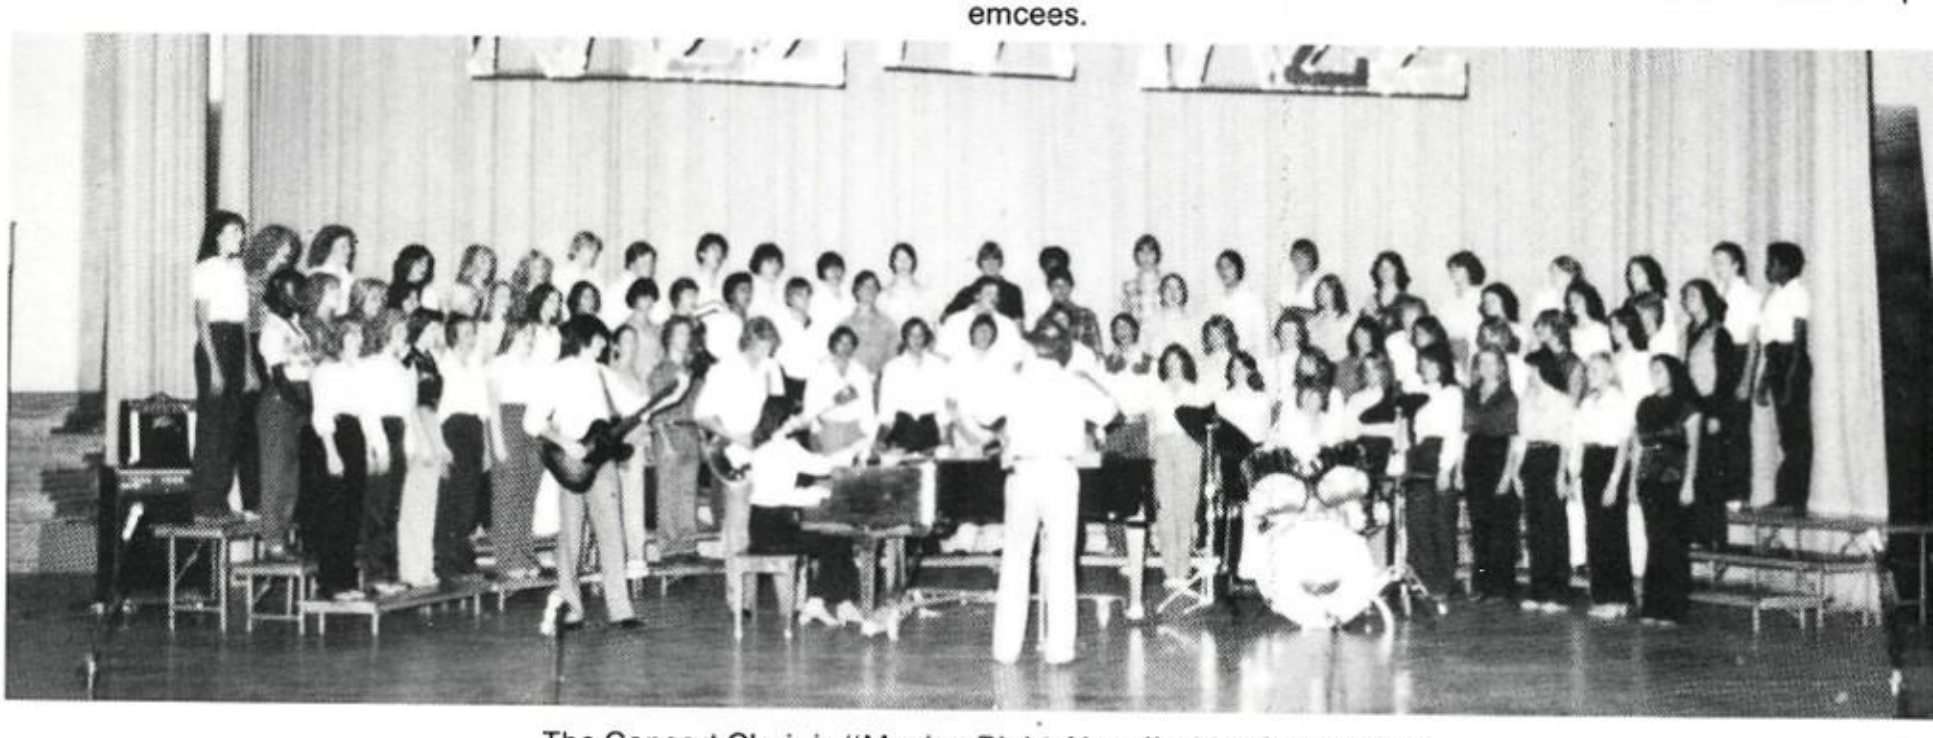
Mr. Crook directs with class

Since the fall of 1973, Razz Ma Tazz has been a W. W. Samuell tradition. The show reached its height of glory this year with Seniors John Shumaker, Greg Pattillo, and Steve Radney emceeing. Accompanists Lisa Barger and Mitchell Mills enhanced the show with their musical talents, and student directors Lisa Meister and Joe Sullivan lent their advice to make Razz Ma Tazz an overall success.

Show headliners were the Varsity Cheerleaders with a pom-pom routine to "Money," and the Starlet officers' dance to "Another One Bites the Dust."



Greg Pattillo, Steve Radney, and John Shumaker ham it up emcees.



The Concert Choir is "Moving Right Along" with "One Voice."

Johnny Bryant is taken by "Country Roads."

John Shumaker and Kim Cade have "All That Jazz."

Tina Morgan is "The Rose."

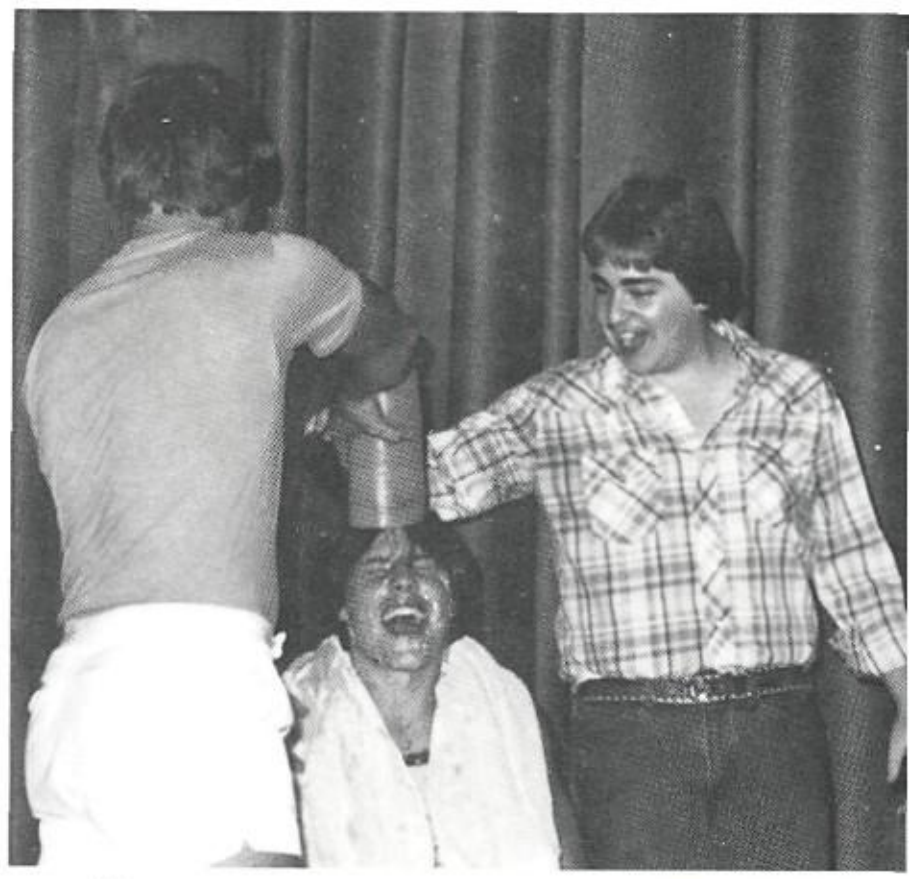
Lisa BeLew is "Upside Down."

Diane Trent "Bites the Dust."

Brenda Corder says "Open Sesame."

Kevin Sumrow sings "Entropy."

Roxanne Young and Joe Sullivan imitate "Leona."

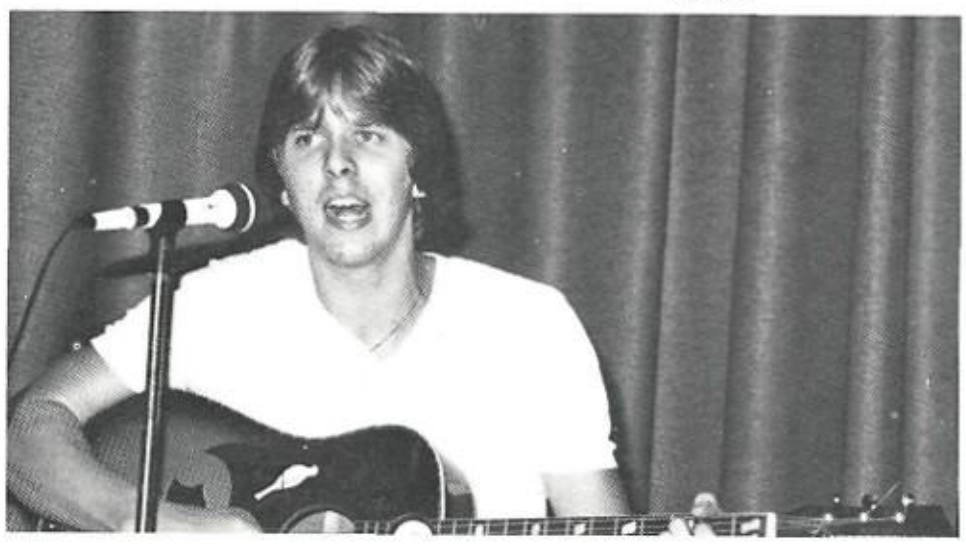


Mike Baker, Bryan Crelia, and Johnny Bryant are all wet.

Lucrecia Mason has "The New Look."

Tina Morgan has the "Saturday Night Live" fever.

Alaina McCoy says, "After You."



Billy Lile knows a "Bird Dog."

Lisa Barger is a trusty accompanist.

ry Wackett and Daynna Breithaupt warn "Don't Fall In Love
h a Dreamer."

The Cheerleaders want "Money."

ry Chism has a little trouble
h her makeup.

Diane Trent and Jeff Granberry are "Taking Their Time" as seniors.

Shari Jones sings "Bastille."

mmy Grice and Allen Robin-n are friendly.

Charles Robertson and Charles Green become the Blues Brothers.

Roxanne Young twirls to "Free for All."

ecky Martinez, Connie Baylor, and Steve Baugh prove that three company.

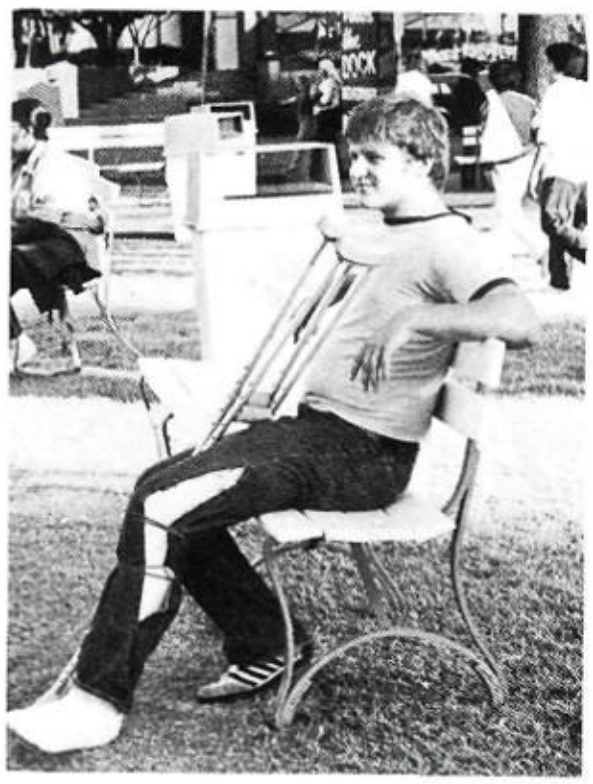
Joe Sullivan is attacked by Daynna Breithaupt and Roxanne Young.

fair day is fair day

On October 17th Samuell High School students were released from classes to attend the State Fair for the 25th year. The Texas State Fair has been in operation in Dallas for 91 years. The Spartans played football in the Cotton Bowl, defeating the Skyline Raiders 7-0.

The score speaks for itself!

Tina Grimmett munches out at the fair.



Mike Mize, are the rides that rough?

Renee Brown is a swinger!

Alaina McCoy and Tammy Page are hunk hunting.

Eric Walker and Ralph McGuffey go window shopping in auto building.

Are you a hired gun, Greg Cohen?

Which way did he go, Daynna Breithaupt?

Trojzal Lewis and Regina Bennett are part of the loyal Spartan turnout.

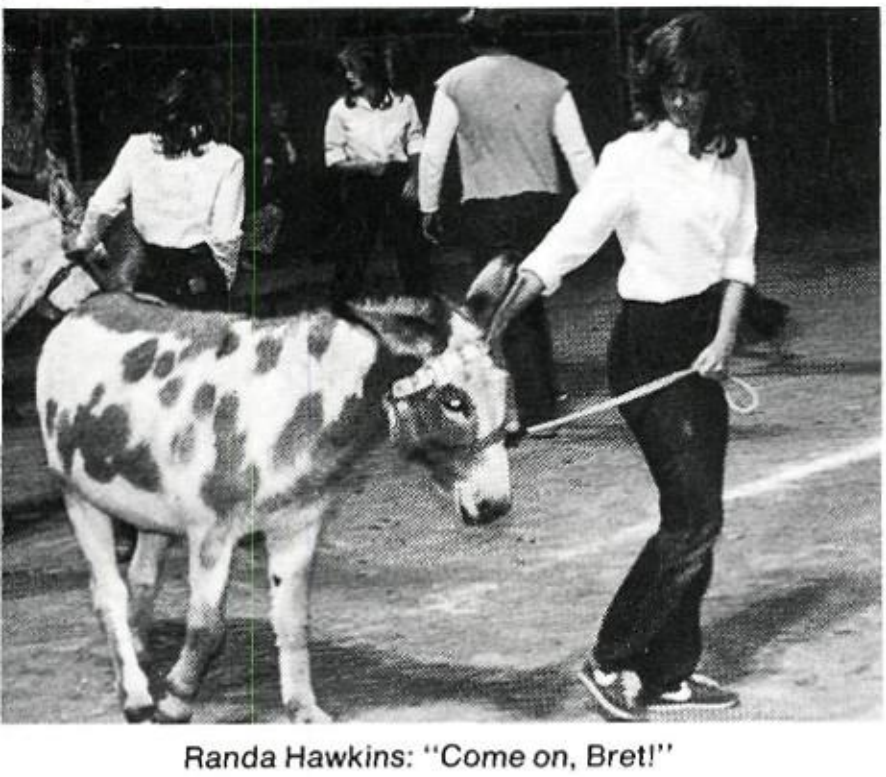
spartans corral apaches nda Hawkins, Renee Russell, and Pam Slayden ride the ge!

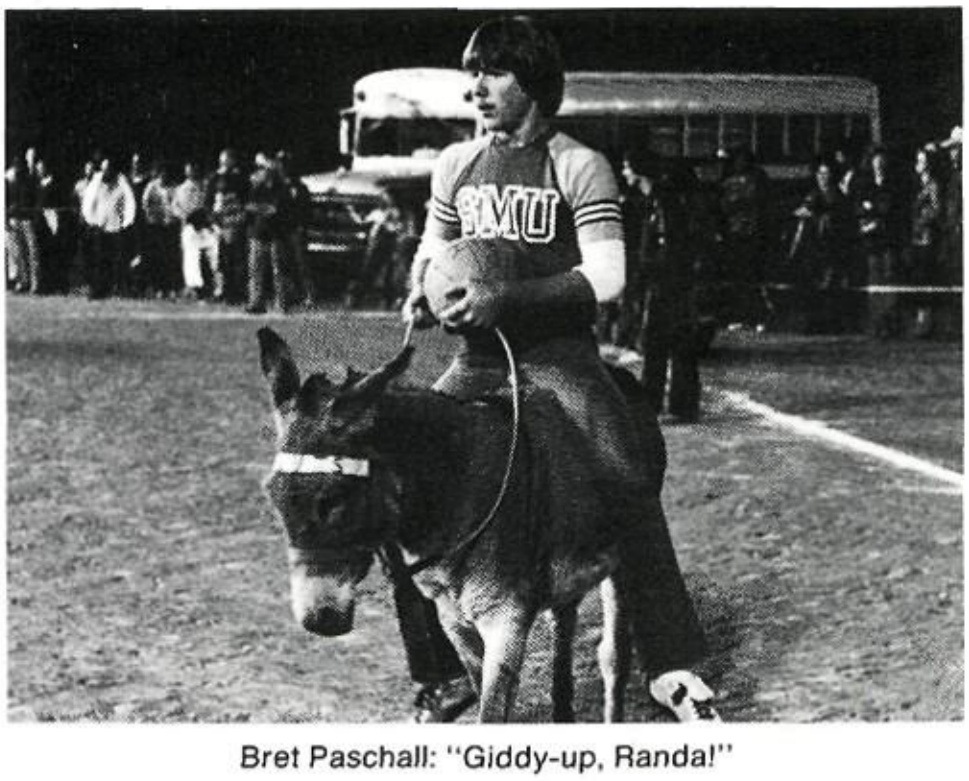
Loretta Freeman: "Oops, wrong way!"

For the first time in Spartan history, the drill officers, cheerleaders, and banner team performed at a different kind of basketball game — a donkey baketball game. On October 27th they played the Spruce drill officers and cheerleaders at the Southeast Y.M.C.A. The Starlet officers beat the Apache officers 1-0. Samuell's Varsity Cheerleaders defeated Spruce's cheerleaders 3-1. The Banner Team played hard, but only tied Spruce's boys 2-2.

Saddlesore, Paula Bledsoe?



Randa Hawkins: "Come on, Bret!"



Bret Paschall: "Giddy-up, Randa!"

SPARTANS WELCOME ALUMNI

Mr. Blackmon entertained the Samuell student body at the 1980 Homecoming Assembly. Mr. Blackmon has given the Homecoming pep talk for eight years.

The Spartans, new and old, enjoyed an afternoon pep assembly. Added attractions in the pep assembly were the famous boys' pom-pom routine which, as always, was successful and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen.

Donna Frazier is announced Homecoming Queen.

Kelli Williams and Rita Duran interpret cheers for the deaf Spartans.

Senior Court Nominee, Kathy Foster, and escort Jeff Scott are introduced in the assembly.

Spartans, parents, and alumni show spirit at the assembly.

Chris Canada is broke after buying all the cheerleaders mums.

Craig Johnson is announced player of the week.

Steve Christian, Chris Canada, Jeff Scott, Greg Cohen, and Greg Pattillo are "Born To Be Alive."

Mr. Blackmon says, "Momma let your babies grow up to be Spartans."

Tammy Grice and Darla Goss announce their sponsors.

Robin Brantley welcomes alumni with open arms.

HOMECOMING DANCE ROLLS

The Homecoming Dance was held in the lunchroom on November 14, 1980, following the Spruce football game. The dance started at 10:00 p.m., and was over at 1:00 a.m.

There were approximately three hundred former graduates, present students, and their guests at the dance. The Senior Class received proceeds, and senior parents served as chaperones.

Ken Pool of King Sound was the D.J. and provided the music. Ms. Reba Cost, the dance's sponsor said that students were very well-behaved, and that the dance was a success.

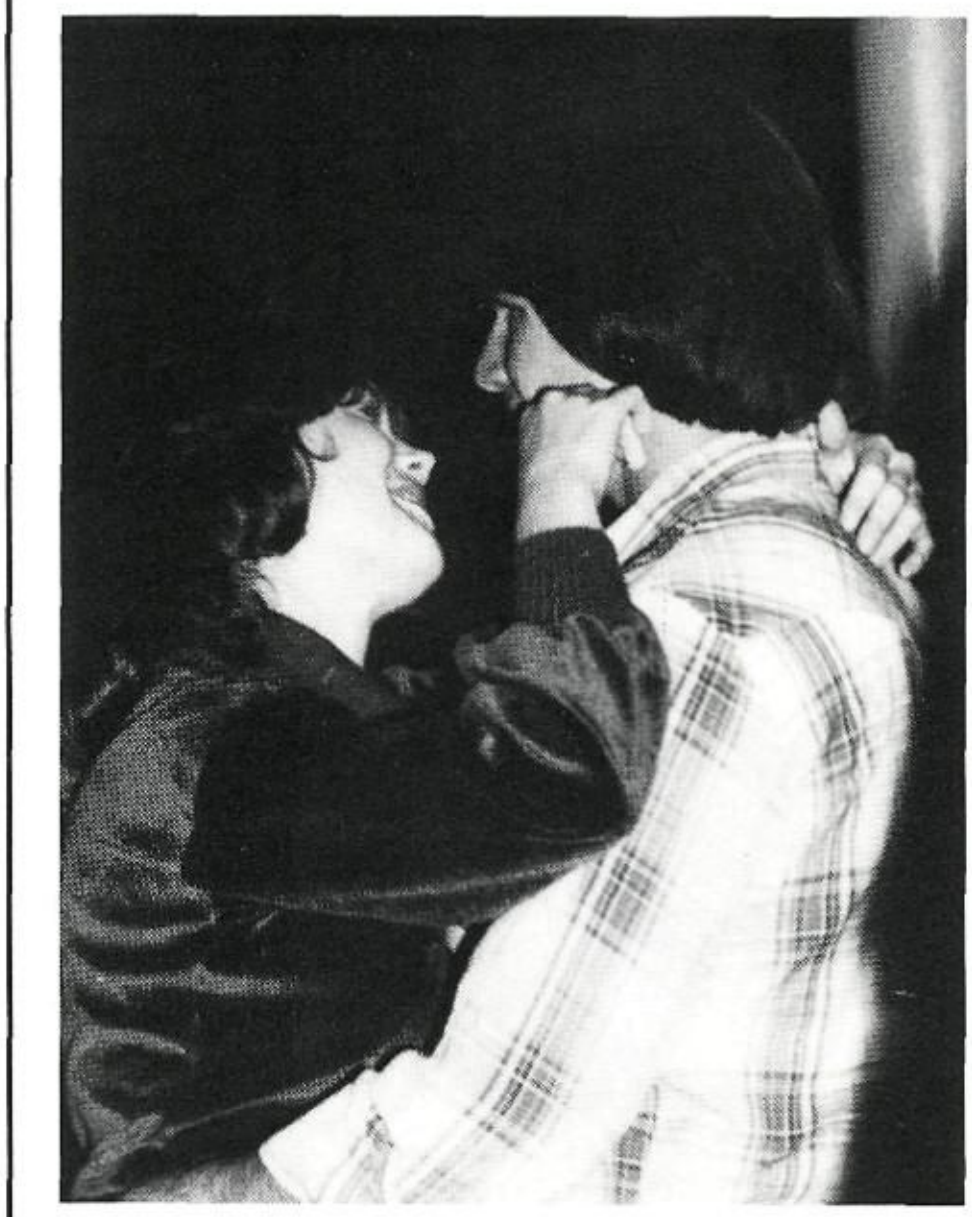
Susan Ballew and Steve Radney "Dance the Night Away!"

Lance Ballew and his date slow dance to the music.

Samuell Spartans "Celebrate Good Times" at the Homecoming Dance.

Jerome Robinson shows his date his charm.

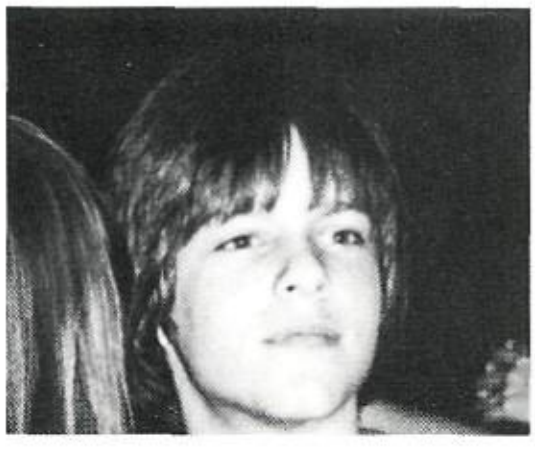
Beth Gilliam — This is not the time or the place to play Peek-a-boo.



Brenda Mabary asks Jay Penn for just one more dance.

Mr. Nagy, Steve Radney and Zena Ruzicka have a Coke. Where's the Smile?

Jerry Hernandez and Lorri Fowler sit this dance out.



James Pate wonders, "Do you love as good as you look?"

Bobby Pitts says, "Look ma, no hands!"

HOMECOMING COURT ANNOUNCED

The Homecoming Court is a 24 year tradition at Samuell, starting in 1957. Two freshman, two sophomore, two junior and three senior girls are elected by their respective classes into the Homecoming Court. The entire student body then votes on one girl to be the Homecoming Queen.

The 1980 Homecoming Queen was Donna Frazier.

Randy Marshall gives a congratulatory hug to Donna Frazier.

1980 Homecoming queen, Donna Frazier and escort Randy Marshall.

Escort Steve Radney and Senior Court Teri Smith.

Escort Jeff Scott and Senior Court Kathy Foster.

Escort Shawn Newsome and Freshman Court Julie Milliman.

Escort Lance Ballew and Freshman Court Kim Crawford.

Escort Brad Lemons and Sophomore Court Kellie Pannell.

Escort Ronnie Ramsey and Sophomore Court Margaret Pineda.

W. W. Samuell is a large high school with a total enrollment of 1,628. There are one hundred and ninty-two teachers, aids, clerks, custodians, and principals employed here by the D.I.S.D.

The faculty works together to foster learning through a variety of course offerings: English, math, industrial arts, homemaking, science, history, government, business, and cooperative education.

The faculty members also promote school spirit by their interest in school activities, and by sponsoring many extracurricular events.

IN DEDICATION

The dedication of the TORCH has always been an honor to both the TORCH, and to the recipient of this award. The annual dedication is voted on by the senior class and the TORCH staff.

This year's dedicatee is a newcomer to W.W. Samuell. He has contributed much to Samuell through his hard work and dedication. He has raised the morale of the student body. His willingness to help the students and talk with them has facilitated communication between the student body and administration.

For his help, kindness, understanding, goodwill, faith, and determination, we, the 1981 graduating seniors and TORCH Staff of W.W. Samuell High School, dedicate the 1981 TORCH to our principal, Mr. Harold J. Filgo.

Mr. Filgo welcomes the freshmen to Samuell.

"May I have your attention please."

Principal Harold J. Filgo

As I look back on much of the 1980-81 school year, I think of interesting questions. "How do you like Samuell?" "How are they treating you at W. W. Samuell?" "Are you the new principal?" My answers have been, "Yes, I like it at Samuell," "They are treating me great," and "Yes, I'm the principal at W. W. Samuell."

Leaving Sunset High School, where I had been for twelve years was difficult because I was leaving friends I had made over the years. Coming to W. W. Samuell was a change, but also a chance to make many new friends. My reception was warm and friendly. Students, faculty, and parents were friendly and cooperative. I was impressed with the spacious, clean building and grounds, a friendly student body, and a dedicated faculty.

Even in the second semester I'm still asked by some, "Are you the new principal?" My answer is, "I guess I am, but I don't feel new; I feel I am a part of W. W. Samuell."

To the Seniors, I regret that I only had one year to work with you, but I'm glad I had the opportunity to do so. To the Juniors, plan to accept the role of leadership. This role has always been important to a successful school. To the Sophomores, you are the backbone of activities. Be a part of your school. To the Freshmen, plan to work toward participation and leadership in the many activities.

To all future students, yours is a great future because of the work and dedication that has gone before you. W. W. Samuell is a great school in a caring community. All of us will be better because of our association with the school and its program and with each other. I'm glad I'm here.

Sincerely,

Harold J. Filgo

"Hello, Mr. Jones speaking."

It looks like Mr. Yanez would rather be at the beach than at this football game.

Ms. Cost always smiles when she walks down the hall.

There are four assistant principals at Samuell who aid Mr. Filgo. Mr. Jones is completing his first year at Samuell as the Dean of Instruction, while Mr. Bratcher finishes out his second year in Student Administration. Mr. Yanez and Ms. Cost have both been at Samuell for four years as the heads of Student Personnel and Student Activities, respectively.

Important Personnel

The registrar, librarian, counselors, principal's secretary, and the nurse all play a vital part in the running of Samuell.

The counselors are available to students who need schedule, college, or personal advice. The nurse is involved with blood-pressure. The librarians are helpful, especially when Spartans are doing research papers, and Ms. Clanton is involved with all school operations.

There is much detail work to attend to at Samuell, ranging from the typing in 112, to calling every person who is absent. Clerks around the school work long hours to accomplish their tasks. Study Hall teachers give students a chance to catch up on homework during an off period, while teacher's aides work individually with students.

Interpreters

Samuell has been the Dallas Regional High School for the Deaf for six years. There are fourteen interpreters who sit in on hearing classes and interpret for the deaf students. Learning sign language is similar to learning a foreign language; it takes much patience and dedication, a good vocabulary, and years of practice to become a proficient interpreter.

Cooperative Education is designed to prepare students for the business world with laboratory and on-the-job training. Students are taught typing, shorthand, filing, and other business skills in lab. Later, Spartans can work half-day to gain experience.

Fine Arts

Samuell's Fine Arts Department is outstanding. Speech, drama, and art are some of the many courses offered to Spartans. Also, there are chorus, Jesters!, band, orchestra, and stage band for musically talented students.

For Spartans who are especially vocal, the speech department attends many speech contests during the year. Also, the art classes sponsor many art shows at Samuell, and display the work often during the year.

WINTER

SPARTANS GO FOR SNOW?

Winter is fur coats, ski jackets, thick sweaters, corduroy pants, furry gloves, lots of socks, big logs burning in the fireplace, basketball games, snuggling, Santa Claus, opening presents, goodwill, President Reagan's inauguration, the release of fifty-two American hostages, hockey games, the Golden Gloves, Valentine's Day, and ski trips. For some students, winter is dreaming of warm weather and the coming Spring Break.

Jeff Morrow, the director of Thespians, chose David and Lisa as the all-school play for 1980. David, played by Joe Sullivan, is driven by a mania against touching. Lisa, portrayed by Laura Karlen, is a schizophrenic. The play traces David and Lisa through a school term at Berkley, a special institution for the emotionally disturbed. David and Lisa was considered by most as one of the best plays in Samuell's dramatic history.

DECA SUPPORTS

DECA students can learn about the functions of marketing and merchandising. This year the Samuell club sponsored the city-wide DECA Olympics. They participated in the area's second M.D.A. Bowl-a-thon. Last summer, DECA went to the National Career Development Conference in Miami Beach, Florida. After the convention, a number of students went on a cruise to Nassau, Bahamas. In March, several representatives went to Longview for the area's second Development Conference. State Competition was held in Dallas, and finalists will move on to compete at nationals in Anaheim, California.

Vocation Office Education is a cooperative effort between the Dallas Independent School District and the business community to prepare students for careers in office occupation.

Students learn the operation of various machines, and work to develop their office skills. They learn many office procedures, practices, ethics, the importance of a good attitude, dependability, accuracy, and the ability to get along with others. Cooperative students attend classes for one-half of a day which includes an hour in the V.O.E. classroom. Then they go to their place of employment.

Vocational Office Education Students participated in several OEA Club Activities during the 1980-81 school year. The Installation of Officers was held jointly with Spruce High School at the Dallas Garden Center. Our guest speaker was Bob Edwards, Vice President, Southwestern Life Insurance Co. The officers were installed by Pam Smith, VOE President 1976-77. Officers for the 1980-81 school year are: President — Paula Cheatwood; Vice President — Holly Maxey; Secretary — Debbie McGuire; Treasurer — Donna Selby; Historian — Marcia Keasler.

Several students participated in Area Contest. Marcia Keasler placed 3rd in Job Interview Level II and Byron Chism placed 4th in Extemporaneous Verbal Communication.

Lori Hughes was chosen as the VOE Outstanding Student.

VOE students sold Memo Boards and Pocket Calendars in order to raise money for the annual Employer-Employee Luncheon which was held at The Commerce Club.

F.H.A. Reaches Out

Future Homemakers of America is a nation-wide group, designed to teach students the basics of maintaining a home. The 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Samuell Chapters were all involved in the area convention in Denton. A number of students also attended the state convention in San Antonio, April 30-May 2.

Chapter I

The 1st Chapter of Samuell's Future Homemakers of America is a very active group, sponsored by Mrs. Sheila Evans. They adopted the Titche Special Education kids. F.H.A. gave them a Halloween party, stressing Halloween safety. They also sent them Valentines, and sponsored an Easter egg hunt.

During the year they had an appreciation day for the cafeteria ladies, a Halloween party for the day care children, and a Healthy Babies Project.

Tana Hopkins, Tammy Grice, Daryl Jordan, Lisa Meister, and Tamm Upchurch enjoy dinner at the home of Mrs. Sheila Evans.

Chapter II

The 2nd Chapter of F.H.A. is sponsored by Ms. Linda Perez.

The 2nd Chapter sponsored a Thanksgiving Canned Good Drive for the Salvation Army. At Christmas, the F.H.A. gave the parking lot attendant a stuffed stocking. They also gave a party for special education. Before the Christmas holidays, the 2nd Chapter sponsored a food drive for a needy family, and gave away a 5″ stocking to the student who brought the most canned goods.

During the year, F.H.A. members sold Reese's and stuffed animals to raise money for the convention.

Tim Williams shows GREAT enthusiasm for Homemaking!

Chapter III

Ms. Pat Brown is the sponsor of the F.H.A. Chapter 3 at Samuell. In the first semester, they sponsored a fashion show. The parents were invited, and all students modeled garments which they had made. Prizes were awarded.

During the second semester, students learned to cook many different dishes. They also sponsored a Christmas party for the Special Education children.

On April 30th, the 3rd Chapter walked in the March of Dimes Walk Across America, aiding children with birth defects.

Vickie Cooper, Sharon Smith, Rita Johnson, and Curtis Arnold ar the fashion award winners for the Homemaking II fashion show.

Chapter IV

The 4th Chapter of Future Homemakers of America has over fifty active members.

During the year, the 4th Chapter sponsored a Halloween Party for the Special Education Department. They also sent teachers Halloween-grams, and sponsored a luncheon in honor of the new principal.

The students took an eating habits survey, and were involved in a cake decorating class. They held an F.H.A. Awareness Clinic for members, also.

The sponsor is Ms. Joyce Armstrong.

Helen Freeman sews in Ms. Armstrong's Homemaking class.

National Honor Society

Election to the National Honor Society is one of the most coveted awards a student can obtain. To be in N.H.S. a Spartan is rated on grade point average, character, service and leadership qualities, and teacher ratings.

Sixteen seniors and sixteen juniors were chosen for N.H.S. this year. Twenty-nine seniors were already members, making a new total of 61 for the National Honor Society.

Their major project is the printing and selling of Student Directories.

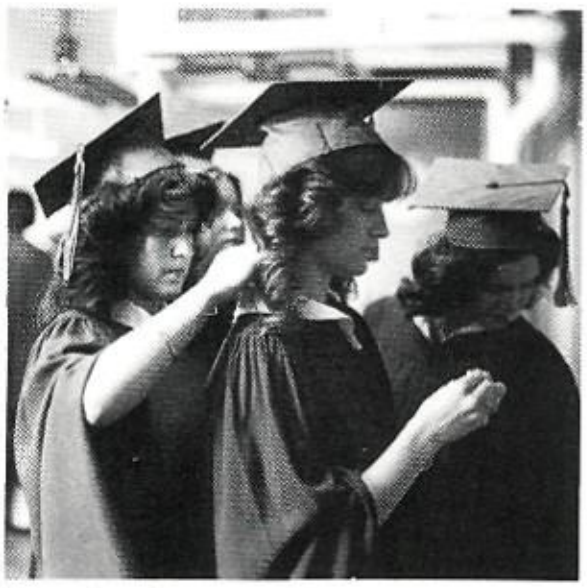
The Baccalaureate Service was held Sunday afternoon, May 17, 1981, at 2:00 p.m. in the auditorium. The Concert Choir began the service with two sacred choral selections, followed by the invocation given by Mr. Filgo. Rev. Michael Walker of Pleasant Mound United Methodist Church delivered the baccalaureate sermon. Janice Ross, a senior, gave the benediction.

The Concert Choir leads the audience as they sing "America."



Pam Slayden helps Randa Hawkins get ready for the service.

Buck Wilson is a "fall-down" comic.

Randa Hawkins and Pam Slayden seal the ' time capsule.

The Varsity Cheerleaders know "Who are the Spartans."

Jay Penn, is that "Your Song?"

Daynna Breithaupt says, "Hit Me With Your Best Shot."

Beth Rakestraw remembers "Yesterday."

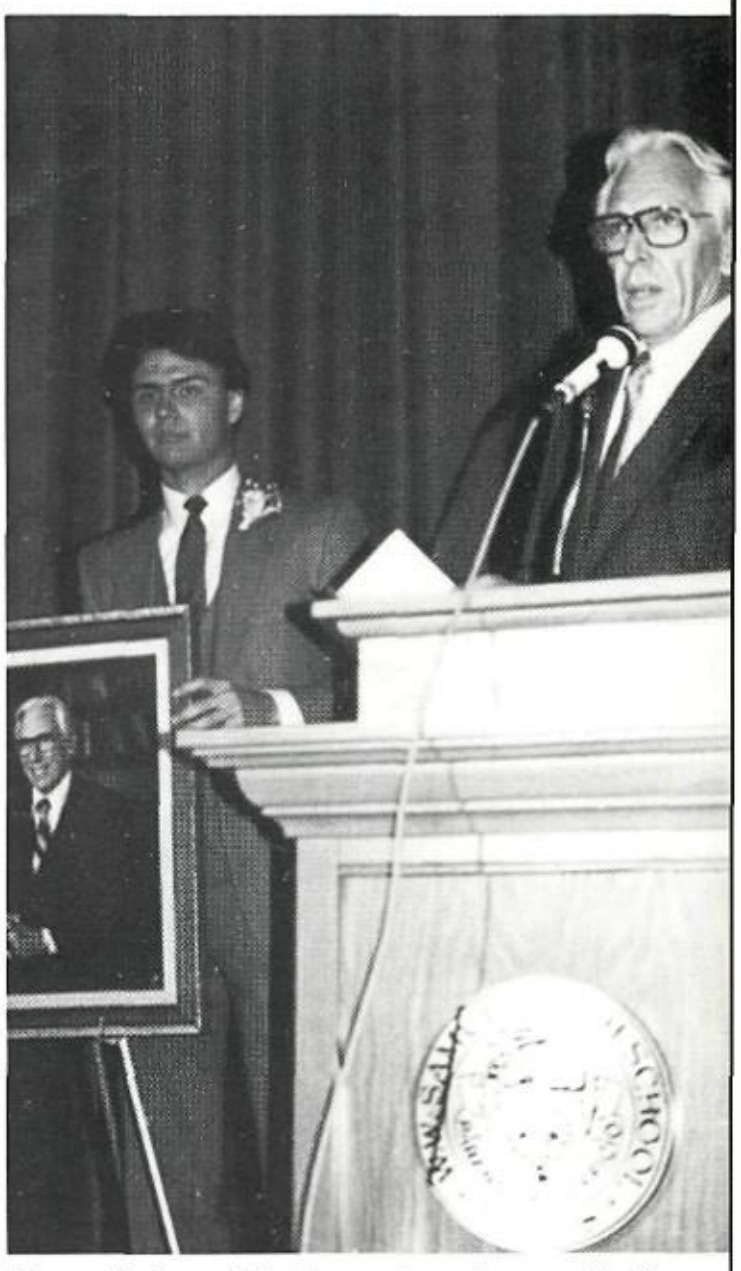
nc ent Nealy says goodbye to the student ody.

Karen Whitlock and Kevin Douthit enjoy the assembly.

Beth Rakestraw, Sal., and Melanie Walker, Val., anticipate the coming assembly.

The Senior Jesters made it "Through the Rain."

The Senior Class sings the Alma Mater for the final time.



Steve Radney bids farewell and presents the school with a new podium and portrait.

The Blue and Gold Class

Seniors of 1981 graduated on the twenty-third day of May. Mr. Harold Filgo, the principal of W. W. Samuell, presided over the ceremony, with the distinguished graduate of the class of 1961, Mr. Jerrald Smith, lending advice to the graduates, as well.

Mr. Gerald Stanglin, a member of the Board o Education, distributed the diplomas to each gradu ate with a firm handshake.

Coach Mac Stokes

The W.W. Samuell Track Team worked hard this year, concentrating mainly on building for coming seasons.

The Junior Varsity Team did well, winning the North Dallas Invitational and Adamson Invitational Meets. Sophomore runner David Moss won the district sophomore division two mile race. Lester Ball placed third in that same race. Also in the sophomore division, freshman Melvin Reed placed second in the 110 meter high hurdles.

There are six team members who ran varsity: John Shumaker, Phillip Baugh, Steve Kinkeade, Mark Presley, Todd Tatum, and Tony Jackson.

John Shumaker, the team's outstanding runner of the year, won almost every 1600 meter (1 mile) and 3200 meter (2 mile) race run all year long. John won 2nd in the April 24th varsity district meet in 3200 meters, with a time of 9:33:06.

The sophomores had a good year, finishing third in city. Stephanye Vinson finished first in high jump and hurdles. Betty Washington finished second in the 880 run, and Barbara Steele finished fourth in the 200 meter dash. All relays finished third. Sherry Fite won district and city in shot put. Ms. Judy Karlen is the coach.

Seniors sing the Alma Mater for the last time in the Senior Assembly.

David Chumbley, Pam Wilson, FeFe Bluitt, and Cheryl Sirls are all smiles at the close of school.

There is no telling where Steve Christian can be found.

The end of the school year is met with mixed emotions. Underclassmen are looking forward to the thought of a three month vacation while seniors relish the memories of the past twelve years and look toward the future with a feeling of awe and uncertainty.

1981 has been a year filled with memories. The TORCH staff hoped to capture those memories, good or bad, happy or sad, and preserve them. The future looms before us, but the past will always be with us.

Brian Bedford and Craig Johnson anxiously await the Baccalaureate ceremony.
